Register today!

What's JAM? JAM is a multi-state music program that introduces students to the music of their communities and region through small group string band classes and instruction on instruments common to the Appalachian Mountains.

How much is JAM? JAM provides group instrument and string band instruction for $100 per 9-week session (non-refundable). All fees must be submitted with registration by the deadline. Student fees pay our instructors and cover operational costs and materials. Each student is responsible for providing an instrument and accessories. Contact administrator if there is a need for instrument check out. Limited numbers available.

How are JAMers grouped?
U School JAM is organized by instrument choice and experience level (beginners and non-beginners).

When will JAM meet?

Thursdays,
Starting back October 10th,
from 3:15-4:30

Junior Appalachian Musicians®
Of University School

EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY
Bluegrass, Old Time and Country Music

Who can join U School JAM?
4th-12th grade University School students are eligible.

How do we JAM at U School?
Group music lessons are provided by students of ETSU's Bluegrass, Old Time, and Country Music Studies Program. Group lessons are weekly, along with special artist visits and other activities.

How do I register for JAM?

- Complete and return the portion below w/ tuition no later than September 13. Registration will close after this date.
- Registration will be moving to an online system next quarter, and JAM will be operating under the nonprofit, Upper East Tennessee Traditional Music Group.

Student Name: Grade:

Parent Email:

Student is:

- Beginner
- Non-Beginner

Parent Phone:

Check your 1st instrument of choice:

- Guitar
- Folksong/guitar
- Fiddle
- Banjo
- Mandolin
- Bass

- Students commit to their instrument through the end of the school year.
- Please make checks to ETSU and write "Junior Appalachian Musicians – University School," in the memo section.
- Checks may be dropped off at the front office Attn: Kim Allison.