Hello ETSU Students and Faculty,

Please be advised that, after July 11th, 2021, instructional software provided online via GoldLab will be moved to our AppStream services. Additionally, MatLab will no longer be available for streaming.

If you have not yet moved to ETSU's AppStream services, additional information, login links, and information about support can be found on the AppStream website: https://www.etsu.edu/helpdesk/software/appstream.php

For additional information, or assistance with the services, please contact Information Technology Services' department of Research Computing Services at 423-439-6457 or email currie@etsu.edu
