

Opportunities for Out-of-State Students

ETSU offers several programs to assist out-of-state students with out-of-state tuition. Students may receive the benefits of only ONE of the following programs:

BORDER COUNTY RESIDENTS

ETSU provides the opportunity for qualified students who are residents of approved border counties to pay at the in-state rate. The approved counties are:

- North Carolina: Ashe, Avery, Haywood, Madison, Mitchell, Watauga, and Yancey
- Virginia: Grayson, Lee, Scott, Washington

For academic requirements, go to: <http://www.etsu.edu/admissions/residency/bordercounty.aspx> or call Admissions at (423) 439-4213

ACADEMIC COMMON MARKET

The Academic Common Market is an interstate agreement between southern states for sharing academic programs not readily available in the home state. The ACM allows out-of-state students (both undergraduate and graduate) in approved programs to pay in-state tuition and fees. For more information and a list of approved majors go to: <http://www.etsu.edu/admissions/residency/market.aspx> or call Admissions (423) 439-4213.
