¹Accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB).

²The Department of Economics is housed in the College of Business & Technology but does offer the Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics through the College of Arts and Science. A minor is required with this major.

⁴Make sure one course is Writing Intensive.

For more information, contact East Tennessee State University, College of Business & Technology, Office of Undergraduate Studies, (423) 439-5275.

Transfer students with 50 or more transferable hours are required to take half the intensives requirements two writing, one oral, and one using information technology). You must take these courses at ETSU as transfer credit does not satisfy the intensive requirements. In this articulation agreement, these courses are indicated by: Writing (W), Oral (O), and Using Information Technology (T). NOTE: Intensive courses are built into ETSU program requirements. They are not additional hours.
