

COLEMAN ART SCHOLARSHIP

Greenville/ Greene County College Resident Only May Apply

The Greeneville Arts Council is pleased to announce that its $2,000 Mary Jane Coleman Art Scholarship is being offered to a deserving Greeneville/Greene County college student only. Coleman is a founding member of the Greeneville Arts Council and was instrumental in bringing a diverse selection of artists and activities including the Sinking Creek Film Celebration to the area. In recognition of her efforts, the Greeneville Arts Council, in June, 2000, established the Mary Jane Coleman Scholarship program.

Candidates for the Mary Jane Coleman Scholarship must have completed their college freshman year, should be full-time, rising sophomores or juniors and should be declared art majors, who are taking a full load of art and art history courses as required by their respective art departments. Consideration for the Coleman Scholarship is based upon the following criteria:

- A completed scholarship application
- Resident of Greenville or Greene County Tennessee
- A slide, or CD, or DVD portfolio of 8-10 works completed during the freshman and/or sophomore year. (See application for additional details)
- A copy of the applicant's transcript to include all courses and grades.
- If possible, a letter(s) of recommendation from a professor(s).
- A one-page, typed statement outlining the applicant's working process and goals.

In addition to the Coleman Scholarship, the Greeneville Arts Council will award college undergraduate merit scholarships as funds permit yearly according to the same criteria listed above.

Application deadline are in June every year.

Please contact Mark Russell 423.638.6547 ruselglas@comcast.net for exact deadline dated and details.

Applications for scholarships are available at the Artspace 4 Gallery, 107 North Main Street, Greeneville, TN, (adjacent to the General Morgan Inn) or can be obtained by calling Clem Allison at 639-3506. Completed applications, portfolios (slides, CD or DVD), and other required materials can be delivered by hand to the Artspace 4 Gallery between the hours of 12 and 4:00 p.m.

These scholarships are made possible by an endowment fund created by The Greeneville Arts Council and a matching grant from the Lila Wallace Readers Digest Foundation through the East Tennessee Foundation.
