The ETSU Department of Art & Design presents Zach Armistead's BFA exhibition, Transcendence, at the Slocumb Galleries from April 6-10, 2009. The public is invited to the opening reception on April 6, Monday from 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Transcendence is a collection of mixed-media drawings, focusing on the transient and atmospheric qualities of the Appalachian landscape. Within this body of work, a connection exists between the natural world and a more spiritual realm. According to Armistead, his experience of the landscape “. . . transcends the basic, material qualities of plants and landforms, pointing towards a divine interconnectedness of all things.”

Zach Armistead is a senior at East Tennessee State University, pursuing a BFA in drawing. For additional information, please contact the artist by phone at (865)-293-6216 or by email at zacharmistead@gmail.com. The Slocumb Galleries are open to the public free of charge, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
