

LINDA STEELE TURNBO
460 Ridgeview Meadows Drive
Gray, Tennessee 37615
(H) 423-794-8689 (W) 423-439-7851
lindaturnbo@comcast.net

ACADEMIC PREPARATION:

Master of Library Science, Vanderbilt University, Nashville,
Tennessee, 1985

Concentration: School Library

Honors: Summa cum Laude

Bachelor of Science, University of North Alabama, Florence,
Alabama, 1983

Concentrations: English, History, Secondary Education

Honors: Magna cum Laude

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Present – August 2004, Assistant Professor and Graduate Coordinator M.Ed. School Library Media

East Tennessee State University, Johnson City

Courses taught:

MEDA 5000 History & Philosophy Educational Media/Tech

MEDA 5635 Basic Reference

MEDA 5710 School Library Media Program

MEDA 5720 Organization Library Media

MEDA 5637 Young Adult Materials

MEDA 5925 Practicum/Student Teaching

July 2004 – August 1984, Library Media Specialist

Hardin County Board of Education, Savannah, TN

Hardin County Middle School, 1989 - Present

North Elementary School, 1984 – 1989

Pickwick Southside High School, 1984 – 1985

Adjunct Instructor, 1994-1991

University of Memphis, Jackson Center

Courses taught:

- Applications of Instructional Media, spring 1994,
Summer 1993
- Media and Technology Utilization, Fall 1992
- Library Materials for Young Children, Summer 1992
- Introduction to Educational Media, Spring 1992

Adjunct Instructor, 1988-1987

Bethel College, McKenzie, Tennessee

Courses taught:

- Audiovisual Instructional Materials, Fall 1987
- Computer Science for Teachers, Spring 1988

PUBLICATIONS:

Additional Writing Activities:

- One of the authors of Experiences in Literature: Kindergarten through Grade Eight, TN Department of Education, Whole Language Task Force, 1989
- Wrote "Materials Selection Policy" now used in all Hardin County Schools, 1985

GRANTS AWARDED:

- "Improving Resources for School Library Media Candidates and Teacher Candidates Dealing with Censorship" (2004) Instructional Development Grant, East Tennessee State University. $2870.00

PRESENTATIONS:

- Presented "Middle School Library and the Classroom Teacher" at Tennessee Association of Middle Schools Conference, 1995

- Presented "Library School Instructional Partners" at Librarians Effecting Active Partnerships Conference sponsored by Tennessee Department of Education, 1987

SERVICE:

2004-2005

- Admissions Board Interviews for the Department of Curriculum and Instruction: August, October and November
- Advisor and Coordinator for School Library Media graduate students
- Hosted Tennessee Association of School Librarians "Resource Alignment" Inservice Workshop at ETSU, March 2005
- Oral Comprehensives Committee member for seven M.Ed. Educational Media and Educational Technology students, December 2004, April 2005

HONORS AND AWARDS:

- Commended for introducing Steven L. Layne's "Read Aloud Program" in Hardin County Middle School, 2003
- Commended for introducing and implementing "The Star Reader" program (computer adaptive, norm-referenced reading test and database) in Hardin County Middle School, 2001
- Commended for introducing and implementing "The Accelerated Reader" program in Hardin County Middle School, 1994-1995(now used in all Hardin County Schools)
- Member of Tennessee Technology Task Force, 1991-92
- Nominated for Louise Meredith School Library Media Award, 1990
- Commended for planning and implementing transition to computerized library management/circulation system, Hardin County Middle School, 1990
- Commended for writing "Materials Selection Policy" now used in all Hardin County Schools, 1985
- Graduate assistant to Dr. Edwin Gleaves, George Peabody College, Vanderbilt University, 1984-1985
- Received Margaret Rufsvold Scholarship - Vanderbilt University, 1984
- Nominated for the Association of University Women's Outstanding Senior Award, 1983

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

American Library Association

Tennessee Association of School Librarians

Phi Kappa Phi

National Science Teachers Association