I. PUBLICATIONS:

A. JOURNAL:

B. BOOKS OR CHAPTERS:

C. PROCEEDINGS:

II. POSTERS ABSTRACTS AND/OR PRESENTATIONS:

A. REGIONAL AND NATIONAL:

B. INTERNATIONAL:

III. INVITED PRESENTATIONS:

IV. OTHER:

V. VISITING PROFESSORS:

1. Kate Sullivan, MD, PhD., Professor of Pediatrics, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, “Five Year Old with Frequent Pneumonias, Leukocytosis and Low IgG.” September 5, 2012.

2. Cathleen Marie Cook, MD, Fellow, Pediatric Hematology/Oncology, St. Jude

3. Benjamin Hoffman, MD, Associate Professor, Oregon Health Sciences University, AAP Healthy Active Living Grant Visiting Professor. “Community Based Health/Child Passenger Safety.” September 12, 2012.

4. David A. Kube, M.D., Associate Professor, Associate Program Director of Residency Program, University of Tennessee Health Science Center, Memphis, TN. ADHA: What’s New in the Guidelines?”. January 7, 2013.

5. David S. Lim, M.D., Associate Professor, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA. “Novel Transcatheter Heart Valve Therapies.” April 17, 2013.

VI. EXTRAMURAL FUNDING:

A. PEER REVIEW:

1. Cross-age Peer-based Health Education to Address Adolescent Obesity Disparity, NIH R01, role: Karen Schetzina, MD Pediatrician at 10% FTE, PI: Deborah Slawson, PhD. PI. Total award $725,000.

2. ReadNPlay for a Bright Future, American Academy of Pediatrics Healthy Active Living Grant. Role: PI Total award $23,000 + $2,000 from Tennessee Chapter of the AAP. 2012

3. Boundaries and Bridges to Adolescent Obesity Prevention: Identifying Parental Engagement Strategies in High Schools in Southern Appalachia, Tennessee Board of Regents, was selected for funding in the amount of $59,071 starting 7/1/13. Role: co-Investigator at 4% FTE; PI: Deborah Slawson