

School of Graduate Studies Scholarships

Scholarship Application Deadline for Spring 2010: Dec 1, 2009

Scholarship Application Deadline for Fall 2010: July 1, 2010

General Criteria:

- Out-of-state students
- Must be a new graduate student during the first semester that the scholarship is awarded.
- Admission to a graduate certificate or degree program
- Full-time and part-time students
- Students who have been awarded a graduate tuition scholarship or a graduate assistantship are not eligible for these scholarships
- Students whose out-of-state tuition has been waived through the Border-County Waiver, the Academic Common Market, the fee waiver for out-of-state part-time students working full-time in Tennessee, or any other scholarship or waiver for out-of-state tuition are NOT eligible for these scholarships.
- Out-of-state tuition up to maximum of $4000 per semester for fall and spring terms. Students will pay all of the in-state maintenance fees, any remaining out-of-state tuition, and all other student and course fees.

Out-of-State Graduate Scholarship

Applicants must be U.S. citizens and must be applying to a graduate program with growth capacity to be eligible. RODP Programs are not eligible. Students in the following graduate programs will take preference:

- Accounting
- Allied Health, M.S.
- Early Childhood, Ph.D.
- MBA; AMBA
- Nursing Ph.D.
- Nurse Practitioner (MSN; RODP students are NOT eligible)
- Special Education, M. Ed.
- M.S. Technology
- Certificate Programs:
 - Archival Studies
 - Biostatistics
 - Business Administration
 - Economic Development
 - Emerging Technologies
 - Entrepreneurial Leadership
 - Epidemiology
 - Gerontology
 - Health Care Management
 - Post-Master's Nurse Practitioner Certificate (RODP certificate is not eligible)
 - Rural Health
 - Teaching English as a Second Language
 - Urban Planning
 - Forensic Document Examination

International Graduate Student Out-of-State Scholarship – Any ETSU graduate program with enrollment capacity within existing resources. RODP programs are not eligible.

Ethnic Diversity Graduate Student Out-of-State Scholarship – Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Any ETSU graduate program. RODP programs are not eligible.

