Alpha Sigma Lambda (ASL) Honor Society Inducts Record Number

ASL, The Premier National Honor Society for Nontraditional Adult Students inducted fifty-seven new members on the evening of Friday, April 3, 2009. Congratulations to these students. They represent the top 10% of adult students at colleges and universities across the United States. Invitation to membership in ASL is sent to eligible students each spring. Dr. Pat Brown, the national ASL president was the guest speaker. The event drew a crowd of over 120 and was held in the lobby of historic Carter Hall. A picture of new members wearing their stoles is below.
