

Proposed ETSU Consensual Romantic or Sexual Relationship Policy
11/17/2016

Definitions:

Evaluative Authority: any person with authority over another individual (e.g. grading, employment, supervision, writing letters of recommendation, award/scholarship recognition, scheduling, or the ability to affect membership/participation or to provide special consideration or treatment).

Consensual relationship: any intimate relationship when both parties consent and the relationship is of a romantic or sexual nature, whether that be dating, marriage, or another arrangement

Purpose:

Evaluative Authorities have a distinct and prestigious role in the educational process at this university. This policy is meant to prevent any abuse of this special role – even unintentionally – and to protect all parties involved from being in a vulnerable position or from feeling pressure. Also, consensual relationships can lead to favoritism from the Evaluative Authority; others may believe that there is favoritism even if there is not.

Policy:

The university prohibits a relationship between an Evaluative Authority and another individual – this is a conflict of interest. Any relationship that constitutes a potential conflict of interest must be reported to the Evaluative Authority's supervisor. The conflict of interest must be resolved. If an Evaluative Authority fails to report, then the university will investigate the relationship as if it is non-consensual and the university will take the appropriate disciplinary actions.
