HIPAA Privacy Rule Quiz
Please choose the best answer.

1. What is the appropriate abbreviation for the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act?
   a. HIPPA
   b. HIPAA
   c. HIPPO
   d. HEPAA

2. The HIPAA Rules apply to the following ETSU/MEAC Personnel:
   a. Individuals at ETSU who actually provide healthcare
   b. Individuals who work at ETSU and MEAC Clinics
   c. Individuals who choose to follow the HIPAA Rules
   d. All individuals including students, volunteers, & trainees within ETSU academic departments and ETSU/MEAC clinics that access, create, receive, maintain or transmit individually identifiable health information

3. What information do the HIPAA Rules apply to?
   a. Patient’s medical diagnosis and prognosis
   b. Patient’s financial information
   c. Patient’s demographic information
   d. All of the above

4. Which of the following constitutes protected health information in printed form?
   a. Printed list of patient billing statements
   b. Paper to paper fax forms such as medical records requests, refill requests, and physician orders
   c. Printed schedule of patient appointments
   d. All of the above

5. What reasonable steps and reasonable efforts must we take to safeguard protected health information (PHI) in printed form?
   a. We must use printed PHI alone, in a locked room, with a guard standing outside
   b. We must use printed PHI in an area where unauthorized individuals cannot see it, and store printed PHI in a secure area such as in a locked office or locked filing cabinet when not in use
   c. We must use printed PHI in an area where unauthorized individuals cannot see it and store it upside down on our desk when not in use
   d. All of the above

6. What reasonable steps and reasonable efforts must we take to safeguard protected health information (PHI) in spoken form?
   a. We must speak in soft voices and behind closed doors when possible
   b. We must refrain from leaving detailed spoken PHI on a patient’s voicemail
   c. We must confirm whom we are speaking to on the telephone prior to divulging spoken PHI
   d. All of the above
HIPAA Privacy Rule Quiz Cont.
Please choose the best answer.

7. The HIPAA Rules apply to individually identifiable health information only. Which of the following information constitutes individually identifiable health information:
   a. A patient’s name, the date the patient was treated and the patient’s diagnosis
   b. A patient’s mother’s name, the date the patient was treated, and the patient’s diagnosis
   c. A full face photo of the patient, and the date the patient was treated
   d. All of the above

8. Which individuals do the HIPAA Rules allow to access protected health information (PHI)?
   a. Anyone who is interested
   b. Anyone who works in an ETSU/MEAC clinic
   c. The HIPAA Rules allow individuals to access PHI (paper and electronic) only when such access is necessary to perform their job
   d. Any ETSU or MEAC employee

9. The HIPAA Rules allow for us to use and disclose protected health information without a patient authorization for the following permitted purposes:
   a. Treatment
   b. Payment
   c. Healthcare Operations
   d. All of the above

10. Except as otherwise permitted or required by the HIPAA Rules, ETSU/MEAC Personnel must not use or disclose protected health information except under the following circumstances:
    a. When the patient calls and verbally requests we send her medical records to her employer
    b. When the patient or patient’s personal representative executes a valid authorization
    c. When the patient’s mother calls and asks us to send her a copy of the patient’s most recent office visit
    d. All of the above