

Department of Learning Resources

Scholarly Activities – July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017

Poster Presentations

- Walden RR, Woodward NJ, Wallace RL, “Reevaluating point-of-care resources: community engagement in difficult collection choices.” Poster presented at the Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association annual conference – Greenville, SC – October 2016.
- Wallace EA, Woodward NJ, Walden RR, “Rejuvenating the campus community: yoga in the medical library. Poster presented by Wallace EA at the Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association annual conference – Greenville, SC – October 2016.
- Woodward NJ, Loyd KR, Weyant EC, Wallace RL, Walden RR, “Reexamining campus research: an analysis of study methodologies.” Poster presented by Weyant EC at the Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association annual conference – Greenville, SC – October 2016.

Paper Presentations

- Walden RR, Woodward NJ, Weyant EC. “Potential harms of the quantified self: provider knowledge and practices.” Paper presented at the Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association annual conference – Greenville, SC – October 2016.

Instruction

- Facilitated medical student group in AMSA sexual health leadership course, including working through cases with two standardized patients (Walden).
- Developed and taught health literacy workshop for leaders from Tennessee Charitable Care Clinic sites (Walden).
- Presented to M1/M2 course development luncheon on library services and integration with D2L (Walden).
- “Introducing Browzine” QCOM Course Director’s Luncheon (Weyant)
- Co-teach “Nursing Informatics” East Tennessee State University College of Nursing. Spring 2016 (Woodward, Wallace).
- “Health Statistics” class for the Quillen College of Medicine Community Medicine Clinical Rotation (Wallace, Woodward, Weyant) – taught 6-10 times per year
- “Apps for Mobile Devices” class for the Quillen College of Medicine Family Medicine Rotation (Wallace, Woodward).
- “PubMed Lecture and Labs” for “Drug Information” Gatton College of Pharmacy (Woodward, Wallace, Weyant) – taught 8 times per year
- Lecture on finding evidence for Rob Pack’s evidence-based public health course (Wallace, Woodward).
- Lecture on “Categorizing the Quality of Evidence” for evidence-based practice of pharmacy course (Wallace).
- “Free EBM Resources for Residency and Beyond” Keystone session April 2017 (Weyant)
- “EBM Series for Psychiatry Residents” 13 sessions – Mar – June 2017 (Wallace)

- “Transitions: Mobile Apps for Rotations” – (Wallace, Woodward, Weyant)
- “Library Research Workshop” for Anatomy Laboratory Interns (Wallace, Woodward) - We also reviewed the presentations that these students gave in February
 - Numerous orientation, guest lecture, noon conference, grand rounds, course directors’, and other instructional sessions, including sessions for students (Medical, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy, Nursing (2 per year for MSN and DNP), Doctor of Public Health) and residents (OBGYN, Pathology, Surgery, Pediatrics, Pharmacy, Psychiatry, Internal Medicine, Family Medicine (Bristol, Kingsport, Johnson City))

Institutional Service

- Martha Whaley continued her service as Director of the Museum at Mountain Home. Rachel Walden served as an ex officio board member for the Museum at Mountain Home. Nakia Woodward was appointed as a board member for the Museum at Mountain Home.
- Rick Wallace served on the CoM Faculty Advisory Council.
- Rachel Walden served on the CoM diversity council; began service as council co-chair in March 2017.
- Rachel Walden served as a voting member of the ETSU medical Institutional Review Board.
- Rachel Walden served as a voting ex officio member of the Medical Student Education Committee (MSEC); chaired MSEC implementation group 1 (preclerkship) through curriculum revision process.
- Rachel Walden served as a voting member of the ETSU Faculty Senate.
- Rachel Walden continued to participate in Steering Committee meetings for Creative Services collaboration between Biomedical Sciences, ETSU Postal, and University Relations.
- Rachel Walden contributed Periodic Faculty Review of Dr. Ken Olive and letter for promotion review of Martha Whaley.
- Rachel Walden served on search committee for Biomedical Sciences microbiology position.
- Rachel Walden chaired search committee for Educational Technology and Instructional Design position.
- Rachel Walden presented to the Quillen Board of Visitors on the modern medical library.
- Rick Wallace served as faculty advisor to the Medical Humanities Special Interest Group.
- Rick Wallace served as faculty advisor to the student Rural Health Association group on campus.
- Martha Whaley conducted numerous Museum at Mountain Home tours to ETSU student groups, community groups, and campus visitors.

Research

- Emily Weyant has research in progress on citation management tools and training and library support thereof
- Rachel Walden is revising an article on the UpToDate/DynaMed Plus decision process for the Journal of the Medical Library Association. She is working on notes to right up her research on provider knowledge and practices related to fitness tracking technology, and has outlined a plan for a study on potential uses in education of a particular media technology.
- Rick Wallace is developing research related to the library’s role in alleviating and preventing student burnout.
- The librarians also provide as-needed support to other researchers throughout the College of Medicine and division of health sciences.

Grants

- Successfully obtained National Network of Libraries of Medicine (NN/LM) Exhibit Award ($1266) to fund exhibiting on NLM products and health information at the Tennessee Public Health Association Conference 2016.
- Successfully obtained National Network of Libraries of Medicine (NN/LM) Exhibit Award ($1878) to fund exhibiting on NLM products and health information at the Rural Health Association of Tennessee Conference 2016.

Awards

- Rick Wallace received the Bert C. Bach Servant Leadership Award.
- Poster by Nakia Woodward, Emily Weyant, Rick Wallace, Kelly Loyd, and Rachel Walden received second place research award from the Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association.
- Nakia Woodward received the Academic Librarian of the Year award from the Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association.
- Kelly Loyd received First-Time Attendee Scholarship and Beth Wallace received LIS Student Scholarship to support their attendance to the Southern Chapter of the Medical Librarianship annual meeting.
- Sue Knoche received the SELA Cheerleader Award for her dedication to the Southeastern Library Association.
- The Quillen Medical Library received the Outstanding Southeastern Library Program Award recognizing the library's rural health information outreach work.
- Nakia Woodward received a travel scholarship to attend the Southeastern Museums Conference in September 2017.

External Committees & Service

- Rachel Walden was selected for the JAMA Network Library Advisory Board.
- Emily Weyant is the exhibits coordinator for the 2017 Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association Annual Conference.
- Rick Wallace is on the Conference Planning Committee for the Rural Health Association of Tennessee.
- Rick Wallace coordinated the printing of the program for the 2016 Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association Annual Conference.
- Rick Wallace is coordinating the printing of the program for the 2017 Southern Chapter of the Medical Library Association Annual Conference.
- Rick Wallace served as a peer reviewer for the Health Information & Libraries journal.
- Nakia Woodward is President of the Tri Cities Health Science Library Association.
- Emily Weyant is the Secretary for the Tennessee Health Sciences Library Association (TheSLA).
- Rick Wallace served on the legislative committee for the Rural Health Association of Tennessee.