

ETSU DUAL ENROLLMENT ONLINE COURSES (Page 1)

The following list contains our ONLINE dual enrollment courses.

CJCR 1100 - Introduction to Criminal Justice Conceptions of law and crime, the nature and extent of crime, and an overview of the interrelated criminal justice agencies. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $50-$100.

COBH 2750 - Medical Terminology

Designed for public and allied health professionals who need to read and interpret health and medical reports, research reports, or professional literature. Analysis and utilization of medical terms related to various disorders will be made. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $39-$102.

COMM 2025 - Fundamentals of Communication An introduction to the primary areas of study in the communication discipline. Emphasis is on developing communication competence and understanding communication processes. Topics covered include public speaking, interpersonal communication, and group communication. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $40-$120.

COMM 2055 - Argumentation and Debate An introduction to oral argumentation and debate, including case construction techniques, and case analysis and criticism. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $49-$185.

CSCI 1100 - Using Information Technology Students will gain a working knowledge of word-processing, spreadsheets, electronic communication, and online database searching and will learn the skills necessary to integrate electronic information from various sources. Students learn through both lecture and hands-on experience. 3.0 Credit hours. Online book subscription varies from $100-$160.

DIGM 1500 - Principles of Digital Game Design Provides students with an awareness of the gaming, interaction and other 3D industries as well as preliminary hands-on experience in the interactive and gaming fields. 4.0 Credit hours. No book required.

DIGM 1800 - Principles of Digital Animation Provides students with an awareness of animation and other 3D industries, as well as preliminary hands-on experience in animation production. 4.0 Credit hours. No book required.

ENGL 1010 - Critical Reading and Expository Writing Writing paragraphs and essays based on close readings of various texts, with an emphasis on clear, grammatically correct expository prose. Students must take this course during the first eligible semester at the university. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $40-$90.

ENGL 1020 - Critical Thinking and Argumentation Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or above in ENGL 1010 or equivalent. Writing essays based on critical analyses of various literary texts. Emphasis on sound argumentative techniques. Requires documented research paper. Students must earn a grade of "C" or above to pass this course. 3.0 Credit hours. Continue using book from ENGL 1010.

ENGL 2030 - Literary Heritage Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or above in ENGL 1020; or equivalent. Satisfies requirement for 3 hours in the "Heritage" area of familiarity but does not meet requirements for a major or minor in English. An introduction to literature revolving around the theme of heritage, particularly as heritage is illustrated in Western and Non-Western culture through short fiction, poetry, and drama. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $20-$65.

ENGL 2110 - American Literature to 1865 Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or above in ENGL 1020; or equivalent. Survey of important American writers from Colonial times through the Civil War. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $50-$105.

ENGL 2120 - American Literature since 1865 Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or above in ENGL 1020; or equivalent. Survey of important American writers from 1865 to the present. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $50-$105.

ENGL 2220 - British Literature since 1785 Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or above in ENGL 1020; or equivalent. Survey of major British writers from the Romantic Period to the present. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $30-$105.

ENGL 2330 - World Literature Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or above in ENGL 1020; or equivalent. Various genres from such non-European cultures as early Middle East, Asian, African, and Latin American. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $25-$75.

ETSU DUAL ENROLLMENT ONLINE COURSES (Page 2)

HIST 1110 - World History to 1500 A general survey of the cultural, religious, political, and social development of major world civilizations from their beginnings to c. 1500. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $80-$140.

HIST 1120 - World History Since 1500 A general survey of the cultural, religious, political, and social development of major world civilizations from 1500 to the present. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $80-$115.

HIST 2010 - The United States to 1877 A survey of the settlement and development of the colonies, the revolutionary period, the making of the Constitution, the diplomatic, economic, and political problems of the new government, the nature of economic sectionalism, Jacksonian democracy, territorial expansion, the Civil War, and Reconstruction. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $25-$160.

HIST 2020 - The United States since 1877 Growth of the United States as an industrial and world power since Reconstruction. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $25-$160 and use same subscription from HIST 2010.

MATH 1530 - Probability and Statistics – Non-calculus Prerequisites: Two years of high school algebra. Descriptive statistics and its relevance, including probability, experimentation, measurement, sampling and surveys, informal statistical inference, and hypothesis testing are included. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $80-$150.

MATH 1710 – Pre-calculus I (Algebra) Prerequisites: Two years of high school algebra. Functions and their graphs, including polynomial, rational, exponential and logarithmic functions. 3.0 Credit hours.

MATH 1910 - Calculus I Prerequisites: Two years of high school algebra, one year of plane geometry and trigonometry, or MATH 1720. Functions, limits of functions, derivatives and applications, and introduction to the integral. 4.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $30-$200.

PREH 1350 - Health Professions Exploration Seminar Provides students interested in a career in one of the health professions with information about possible health care career choices, the training required, and the components of the admissions process used by the various professional schools. Topics may include critical thinking and ethics in health care, modern trends in the health professions, academic development, the importance of practical experience, GPA/Transcript evaluations, the application process and personal essays, the professional school interview, and a review of “alternative careers”. The course requires completion of 4 hours of practical experience/shadowing in the field of interest, as well as 4 hours of community service. 3.0 Credit hours.

PSYC 1310 - Introduction to Psychology An introduction to the basic concepts, principles, and theories of the science of psychology. Topics included are biological and developmental processes, perception and awareness, learning and thinking, motivation and emotion, personality and individuality, adjustment and mental health, and social behavior. 3.0 Credit hours. No book required, use free resources.

SOCI 1020 - Introduction to Sociology Sociology is the systematic study of social behavior. Topics include interaction, culture, inequality and social class, the changing society, socialization, subcultures, crime and deviance, family and religion, among others. 3.0 Credit hours. Book prices vary from $25-$160.

SURV 1550 - Introduction to Surveying Prerequisites: Two years of high school algebra, one year of plane geometry and trigonometry, or MATH 1720 or higher, or permission of instructor. An overall introduction to the surveying profession. Basic measurement theories are addressed. Students practice operating basic surveying tools to collect data, calculate the results and prepare a simple map showing the results. This course is not available for distance learning students. 3.0 Credit hours.

SURV 2560 - Surveying Graphics Lettering; basic concept of scale; various text fonts, sizes and styles; various line weights and styles; creating and inserting a title block; creating different layers; basic techniques of editing and plotting maps; proper dimensions on maps; basic concept and techniques of contours; basic concept and techniques of profile and cross-section, drawing a map with external data import; elements of maps; basic information to include on maps. 3.0 Credit hours.

THEA 1030 - Introduction to Theatre A study of the dramatic arts and modes of theatrical production for the understanding and appreciation of the living theatre as a cultural force in society. 3.0 Credit hours