Visit etsu.edu/audiotour to experience our ETSU Audio Tour led by a current ETSU student!
CULP CENTER
The newly renovated D.P. Culp Student Center reopened in March 2020. The true “living room” for ETSU students, the center is where Buccaneers gather for meals, meetings, support services, and simply just to visit with one another.

Burgin Dossett Hall to get a tour of any residence hall while you are on campus!

BURGIN DOSSETT
The main administration building for ETSU which includes offices of Admissions, Housing, Financial Aid, Registration, and the Bursar.

THE QUAD
This green space is always busy with campus events, student organization fairs, study groups, and picnics. It is surrounded by iconic buildings such as Brooks Gymnasium, Sam Wilson Hall, Campus Center Building as well as Tree House Takeout where students can grab lunch on the go!

THE MINI-DOME
Though the Mini-Dome provides space for athletics administration and ETSU’s exercise and sports research labs, it is also here where students cross the stage to receive their degrees at Commencement every fall and spring.

CPA
Much more than just a gym, this building not only provides students and employees the space and state-of-the-art equipment they need to maintain physical fitness but is also the home of intramural sports and a hub of social activity.

LAMB HALL
Lamb Hall is home to two major health science programs: the College of Public Health and the College of Clinical and Rehabilitative Health Sciences.

PRIDE WALK
This colorful walking path is repainted by ETSU’s freshman class every fall with depictions of many student organizations. This also serves as a pop-up location for the Johnson City Farmers Market throughout the academic year!

GOVERNORS HALL
Governors Hall is a co-ed residence hall in the style of double occupancy with private bath. See the list of floor plans and amenities of any ETSU residence hall at etsu.edu/housing or stop by the Housing and Residence Life office in

BALL HALL
Throughout Ball Hall, the creative works of students in the Department of Art and Design move through various stages of creation. Stop by Slocumb Galleries to see the works of our students on display. This building is attached to Mathes Hall, home to our Department of Music and Burleson Hall, home to the Department of Literature and Language.

CHECK OUT OUR AUDIO TOUR