Conditions of Use:

ONE-TIME USE: Copies furnished by the Archives of Appalachia are granted for non-exclusive, one-time use, unless otherwise noted in the agreement. Any additional use, such as later editions, reprints, re-releases or additional publicity/package uses not otherwise listed above will require additional permission by the Archives of Appalachia and/or the donor.

COPYRIGHT AND FAIR USE: United States copyright law authorizes the Archives of Appalachia to furnish reproductions of archival material for the purposes of private study, scholarship, and research. Individuals may not duplicate or use provided copies for purposes that exceed fair use without the written permission of the Archives of Appalachia or the rights holder. Fair use is explained at: <https://www.copyright.gov/fls/fl102.html>. The Archives does not claim to control the rights for reproduction for all materials or images in its collections. Certain images or materials may be protected by copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity rights, or other interests not owned by the Archives. It is the responsibility of the individual to obtain written permission from all rights holders for publication, distribution, or other use of protected items beyond that allowed by fair use.

INDEMNIFICATION: The user will defend, indemnify, save, and hold harmless the Archives of Appalachia, its employees, officers or designates, from any and all costs, expenses, damage, and liability arising from any claim whatsoever which may be presented by anyone for loss or damage or other relief occasioned or caused by the release of a reproduction of an item from the Archives' collections or their use in any manner, including their inspection, publication, reproduction, broadcast, duplication, or printing by anyone for any purpose whatsoever. The user is solely responsible for all issues of invasion of privacy, libel and/or slander that may result from use of the materials.

FEES: The user agrees to pay all fees in accordance to the Archives' Usage Fee Schedule. Make checks payable to East Tennessee State University.

MANIPULATION: To ensure historical integrity of materials, the Archives restricts manipulation of items. The Archives limits manipulation to the cropping of a still or moving image, detail selection, excerpts of sound or moving images, and minor modifications to contrast and sharpness for clarification purposes. Any changes will be explicitly noted in the credit statement. Any other manipulation will require the permission of the Archives and are to be included in the credit line.

CREDIT: Individuals are to properly cite or credit the Archives using a standard citation format, e.g., [Name of collection], Archives of Appalachia, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tenn. Or, Courtesy of Archives of Appalachia, East Tennessee State University, [Name of collection].

ENDORSEMENT: Use of materials from the Archives' collection does not imply the Archives endorses or confirms accuracy of the publication, production, broadcast, website, or any other medium.

DONATION: Where applicable, individuals are to donate to the Archives one copy of the work named in the Usage Agreement.

NONCOMPLIANCE: The Archives reserves the right to refuse to grant use permission and/or provide reproductions to anyone who has not complied with our policies.
