I Shall Grow Old Disgracefully

I will not sit down and be quiet
I will not be seen and not heard
I shall be loud
I shall dance and sing
I shall poke people and annoy them
I shall smile as I do it.
I shall dye my hair, wear red lipstick and big furry boots.

And a the end of my time
I shall put my teeth in a glass and sleep.

Discover your Ulster–Scots Roots

As anyone who has tried to find out more about the ancestry living the further back they go in time the more difficult it becomes to discover precise details about their history. However, we are fortunate to draw on research carried out over a period of time.

Andrew Jackson
7th President of the USA
(1829-1837)

‘Old Hickory’
The First People’s President

Andrew Jackson is one of the most important Presidents in American history. All previous Presidents had been from the upper class of American society - he was the first ordinary citizen to be elected to the highest office. ‘Jacksonian Democracy’ is still regarded as one of the most distinctive features of American political life. And yet his family roots are in the ‘Scotch Quarter’ end of Carrickfergus here at Boneybefore and at nearby Bellahill.
