

COMMUNITY REQUIREMENTS

- Students must be interested in the exploration of Spanish language and cultures.
- Complete the Living-Learning Community Application and be selected to the community.
- Remain in good standing throughout the time living in the community.
- Be willing to participate in regular programming and events, including community gatherings, community service opportunities and presentations.
- Enroll in any designated coursework associated with the community.
- While not a requirement, a demonstrated background in speaking Spanish (either as a native speaker or from prior coursework) is helpful. We accept students from all levels of fluency.
- Reside in designated space for the Spanish Language and Cultures LLC; space in the community is dedicated for Spanish Language and Cultures LLC students only.

THE SPANISH LANGUAGE AND CULTURES LLC IS A PARTNERSHIP OF:

The Department of Literature and Language

TO LEARN MORE

For more information, please contact the
ETSU Department of Housing and Residence Life at 423.439.4446

VISIT US ONLINE

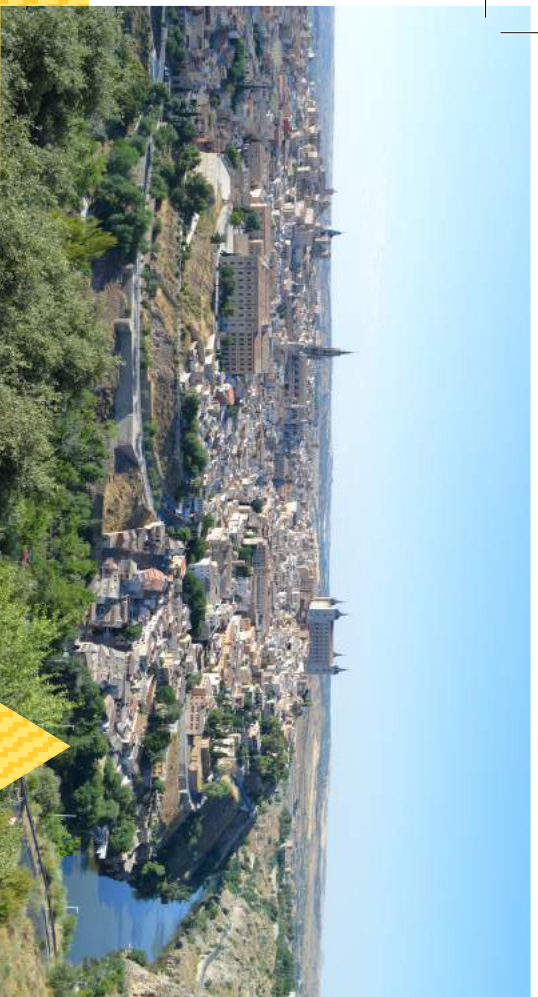

www.etsu.edu/housing/spanishllc.aspx

SPANISH LANGUAGE AND CULTURES LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITY

DEPARTMENT of HOUSING and RESIDENCE LIFE
Division of Student Affairs

EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

This is a unique housing opportunity that will immerse you in the closest thing to a Study Abroad experience right here on campus!

Living in this community can give a tangible boost to your language proficiency by creating cross-cultural friendships outside the classroom.

The Spanish Language and Cultures Living-Learning Community provides a language-immersion environment to foster language proficiency, increase cultural awareness, and make a community around the contributions of Spanish-speaking people and history.

The Spanish Language and Cultures LLC connects you to a network of faculty, staff, and peers who can support you in your academic pursuits and provide resources and opportunities at the university.

