

Educational Leadership

Praxis Scores: 2022-2023

The Instructional Leader Preparation Program had 12 students take the School Leader License Assessment (SLLA) between September 2022 and August 2023. All 12 students passed on their first attempt. ETSU candidates scored a median of 172.62, above the state median of 167.32.

The Instructional Leader Preparation Program requires a minimum of 540 hours of internship with a LEA appointed mentor supervised by the ELPA internship supervisor. Documentation aligns activities to the TILS standards and mentors provide feedback each semester. The cohort who completed licensure requirements in 2023 had a mean of 649 hours completed.