

Reading Specialist

2023-2024: Educator Disposition Assessment (EDA)

2023-2024 Education Disposition Assessment (EDA): All students completed a self-assessment to consider key dispositions, essential to becoming and being a reading specialist in the field. The program coordinators completed an EDA on each student at the end of their program (N=4). All students received scores of 3 on all components of the EDA demonstrating strong dispositions in all areas including communication, professionalism, attitude, preparedness, collaboration, self-regulation, social/emotional intelligence, and a growing appreciation for cultural and academic diversity.