

Reading Specialist

Overall, program graduates continue to be employed in an educational area, maintaining their reading specialist focus. 9 out of 10 students who graduated in 2024-2025 continued or obtained employment in positions for which they were prepared. They all remained in education. Students serve as classroom teachers, reading specialists, and interventionists. Several students serve in leadership roles in their school buildings, such as literacy grade level team leaders. The student who did not maintain employment in the educational area moved overseas, so her employment status is currently on hold.
