(A.) Policy Statement:

Quillen College of Medicine Values

PEOPLE come first, are treated with dignity and respect, and are encouraged to achieve their full potential;
RELATIONSHIPS are built on honesty, integrity, and trust;
DIVERSITY of people and thought is respected;
EXCELLENCE is achieved through teamwork, leadership, creativity, and a strong work ethic;
EFFICIENCY is achieved through wise use of human and financial resources;
COMMITMENT to intellectual achievement is embraced.

ETSU Quillen College of Medicine (QCOM) is committed to continuing to create a workplace environment that supports professional growth; creates an exceptional educational experience for all learners; attracts and embraces diversity; supports an inclusive environment; and seeks to address work-life balance. To that end, QCOM is embarking on an exit interview strategy to assess the employee experience and identify opportunities to improve faculty retention and engagement.
Policy Name: Exit Interview Survey Policy

(B.) Purpose of Policy:

See Policy Statement.

(C.) Scope of Policy (applies to):

All Quillen College of Medicine faculty.

(D.) Policy Activities:

Departing faculty members will be identified by the Office of Finance and Administration to the Office of Academic and Faculty Affairs six weeks prior to the anticipated end of ETSU employment. All departing employed ETSU QCOM faculty will be asked to participate in an exit interview. This is in addition to the ETSU Human Resources Exit On-line Survey. The faculty member will be given the choice to either complete an online questionnaire or a face-to-face interview lasting less than one hour that ideally would be no later than one month before departure. Should the faculty member agree to the online questionnaire and fail to complete it two weeks prior to departure, the faculty member would be contacted to reconsider the face-to-face interview before leaving. In the instances where the faculty member agrees to a face-to-face interview, the interviewee will be given a list of questions that will be covered during the session to contemplate and prepare answers. Departing faculty members may decline to participate.

Face-to-face interviews will be completed by an ETSU faculty or staff member. The departing faculty will select from a group of individuals across the institution and called the Exit Interview Panel. The Interviewer will be outside of the departing faculty member’s department or division and without a conflict of interest. The interviewers will receive training for conducting effective interviews 1) before being allowed to conduct their first exit interview; 2) after a revision of the exit interview questions; and 3) annually. The employee’s direct supervisor will not conduct the interview or be present during the face-to-face interview nor the department chair or division leader.

An Exit Interview Committee will be appointed by the Vice Dean. It may include members of the Exit Interview Panel. The responsibilities of this committee will be to:

- To review questions to be asked during the Exit Interview and Questionnaire at the start of the academic year. Input will be sought from stakeholder groups, such as the Faculty Development Work Group, the Diversity Council, and the Administrative Council.
- To ensure that interviewer training is conducted.
- To analyze, collate, and summarize information from the interviews and online surveys.
- To distribute aggregate information to relevant stakeholders on an annual basis.

Utilizing the Information:

The information collected during the interview and questionnaire will be analyzed, collated, and summarized for presentation. Relevant outcomes, suggestions, trends, and issues will be summarized and may be presented to the following persons or groups annually as applicable:

- The Dean and QCOM leadership during a Leadership Meeting
- Faculty Advisory Council
- Diversity Council

Confidentiality:

QCOM will make every effort to keep all information confidential. All information will be presented in aggregate form; however, due to the small size of the faculty or when specific situations exist or are described, it may not always be possible to keep the information anonymous. Any information that relates to harassment, discrimination, or illegal activity will be forwarded immediately to the Office of University Compliance and will not be included in any presentation or analysis of exit data. Exit interview/survey data will be maintained without identifiers and housed in the Office of Academic and Faculty Affairs.

Interviewer:

Reason for leaving:

Instructions to Interviewer:

- Please provide as much of the interviewee information in the table above as that person is comfortable sharing.
- Please include as much detail as you are able in your summaries and indicate direct quotes with quotation marks.
- The interviews are confidential, but collated information will be shared with the Dean and others as necessary to improve attraction and retention policies of diverse faculty, and, with the interviewee’s permission, with their Chair or Division Leader.

1. Please tell me why you are leaving.

2. Were you generally satisfied with your experience at your department or division? If not, did you express your dissatisfaction to your immediate supervisor before seeking other opportunities or deciding to leave?

3. Were the level and number of assignments given to you— in such areas as service, teaching, clinical, scholarship — reasonable? How do you believe it compared to that of your colleagues?

4. Were the level of support and opportunities given to you -- e.g., teaching, research and scholarship support, service, professional development, and leadership opportunities — sufficient? How do you believe it compared to that of your colleagues?

5. In your experience, is your department or division inclusive and welcoming to all? Why or why not?

6. If you are leaving because of the local quality of life or spousal/partner dissatisfaction with professional opportunities, is there more that your department or division could have done to address those issues?

7. What advice do you have that may enable your department or division to attract and retain high-quality, diverse faculty members?
