REACHES NEW YORK—The 45,000-ton battleship Missouri, on which the Japs formally surrendered to the Allies in Tokyo Bay, moves majestically up the Hudson River past the New York skyline to her berth at the end of her long voyage from the Pacific. Manhattan's buildings at dusk form a brilliant background for the "Mighty MO."