The Administration, Faculty and Staff of the College of Public Health at East Tennessee State University hereby establish the following Bylaws to provide a mechanism for participating in planning, policy-making, and decision-making related to academic and other matters affecting the mission of the College or the welfare of its members. The Bylaws are formulated to address the mission, strategic intent, and goals where the special charge and nature of the College necessitate organization, procedures or requirements different from or in addition to those of the University. The Bylaws establish the structure and operating procedures for the College and are applicable to all faculty of the College.

ARTICLE I. NAME AND AUTHORITY

1.1 Name: The name of the organization is the College of Public Health administered within the Academic Health Sciences Center at East Tennessee State University. Degree offerings include the Baccalaureate, Master’s, Doctoral Degrees as well as Certificate programs at both the undergraduate and graduate level.

1.2 Authority: The authority for the organization comes from the State of Tennessee and East Tennessee State University.

ARTICLE II. MISSION, VISION, AND CORE VALUES

2.1 Mission:
2.1.1 To provide students a high quality educational experience focused on excellent teaching, research training, and practical skills to prepare them for a diverse and interprofessional workforce;

2.1.2 To advance science through research focused on identifying causes of, and practical solutions to, important health challenges;

2.1.3 To create an environment that is personally and professionally rewarding for faculty, staff, and students;

2.1.4 To use our expertise to improve the health status of all people including those in underserved communities through education, evidence-based advocacy, collaborative research, and partnerships.

2.2 Vision: The ETSU College of Public Health is the school of choice for students who want an exceptional educational experience in a world-class environment.

2.3 Core Values:

- ALTRUISM: We believe in nurturing a sense of altruism and benevolence towards the less fortunate on the part of our faculty, staff and students.

- COMMUNITY SERVICE: We seek to strengthen the communities we serve, including our neighborhoods, our academic community, and our professional associations, by building collaborative partnerships, taking leadership positions, and contributing our knowledge, skills, and commitment.

- DIGNITY: We treat all people with unwavering dignity and respect.
• DIVERSITY: We embrace diversity and seek to attract and retain diverse faculty, staff, and student bodies.

• EDUCATION: We recognize that our greatest obligation is to assure that our students develop the knowledge, practical skills, and life-long learning habits, to allow them to take their place among the leaders of their professions.

• EXCELLENCE: We are dedicated to excellence in teaching, scholarly activity, and community and professional service.

• INTEGRITY: We adhere to the highest ethical standards of honesty and fairness and we recognize that integrity and ethical behavior are essential elements of our professions.

• RESEARCH: We are committed to conducting basic and applied research to advance the science base for public health decision-making and to promote community health and development.

• TEAMWORK: All parts of the College—students, faculty, and staff—enjoy a close-knit relationship and opportunities for formal and informal interpersonal exchange.

ARTICLE III. THE FACULTY

3.1 Membership: For the purpose of these Bylaws alone, the Faculty of the College of Public Health shall consist of all individuals holding full-time, full-time temporary, and part-time faculty appointments. 7.3.2 Agenda for Leadership Council shall be prepared by the Dean and shall be distributed to the members before each meeting. Agenda items may be submitted to the Dean by any regular member of the Council. The student body, through the President of the student council, may make suggestions for agenda items for the Council and may be asked to provide representation at a Council meeting to present/discuss the suggested issues.

ARTICLE VIII. THE UNITS OF THE COLLEGE

Departments:

8.1 Meetings: Each department shall hold regular meetings to transact business of the department and discuss activities of concern to the College. Departmental policies shall be consonant with college policy in letter and spirit.

8.1.2 Leadership: The Department Chair, who is a regular member of the Faculty, shall be responsible for administration of educational programs, research, resource allocation, and professional service functions of the department, and shall be the representative spokesperson of the department. The Department Chair shall recommend to the Dean the appointment, reappointment, and tenure and promotion of members of the Faculty in accord with policies found in the ETSU Faculty Handbook (2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4).
8.1.3 Vacancies: When a position of Department Chair becomes vacant, the Dean shall recommend to the Vice President for Health Affairs and the President the appointment of an acting Chair. When a position of Department Chair becomes vacant, the Dean shall follow the Faculty handbook Policy (1.10) for selection and appointment of a new Chair.

8.2 Other Units — Other units shall be administered in accordance with the same principles and policies as those governing departments.

8.3 Addition or Deletion of Units — The addition or deletion of departments or other units shall be accomplished in accordance with applicable policies of the Tennessee Board of Regents. Once approved, these changes may be automatically reflected in these bylaws.

ARTICLE IX. EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

9.1 Dean:

9.1.1 The Executive Officer of the College of Public Health shall be the Dean, appointed according to the policies of the University with authority as delegated from the President, the Chancellor, and the Tennessee Board of Regents. The Dean shall be a regular member of the Faculty, and as Dean of the Faculty, shall represent it and serve as spokesperson for the entire College at official meetings and events both on and off campus.

9.1.2 The responsibilities of the Dean shall include faculty and staff recruitment and appointments; oversight of the College’s educational and research programs; admissions, placement, and student affairs; budget planning and management; fiscal management; space utilization and equipment; and other activities that strengthen the educational, research, and service functions of the College.

9.1.3 The Dean shall recommend faculty appointments and promotions as well as individuals for the position of Associate Dean and other administrative positions through the Vice President for Health Affairs to the President in accord with ETSU policies after consultation with appropriate Chairs, committees, and members of the Faculty.

9.1.4 The Dean may assign specific administrative duties to the Associate and Assistant Deans or other designated persons and may delegate executive authority to them. The Dean shall make known to the Faculty the principal areas of responsibility of the Associate and Assistant Deans.

9.2 Associate Dean for Academic Affairs:

The responsibilities of the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs will generally include the following: interpret policies and procedures; coordinate common activities (course scheduling, core comprehensive examinations) between the units; oversee program coordinators; serve as a faculty liaison; oversee the building coordinator; and other duties as reasonably assigned by the Dean.

9.3 Assistant Dean for Student Services:

The Assistant Dean for Student Services will coordinate college-wide efforts to assure student success outside of the classroom. The responsibilities of the Assistant Dean for Student Services will generally include: coordinating and implementing plans for student recruitment and retention, alumni relations, career and professional development activities, marketing and outreach, and support of student organizations. The Assistant Dean will represent the college at university committees, professional organizations, and other activities related to student welfare and development.

9.4 Associate Dean for Research

The Associate Dean for Research shall generally coordinate the development and implementation of a strategic plan to maximize the impact of research on the long-term goals of the College; follow and report on the implementation of that plan; coordinate the mentoring of junior faculty in research grantsmanship; assure appropriate representation of the College on issues related to research, and other duties as reasonably assigned by the Dean.

9.5 Associate Dean for Quality and Planning

The Associate Dean for Quality and Planning shall be responsible for assessment of student learning outcomes, evaluation processes and data systems; report on evaluation findings and guide the use of evaluation results for quality improvement; provide leadership for strategic planning; oversee accreditation efforts; and assure appropriate representation of the College on issues related to quality and planning.

9.6 Assistant Dean for Finance and Administration

The Assistant Dean for Finance and Administration is responsible for managing the college budget consistent with the college plans and within guidelines of the university and the Tennessee Board of Regents. The Assistant Dean serves as a liaison between the Office of the Dean and the departmental chairs on financial and administrative matters. The Assistant Dean is a member of the college Leadership Council, reports directly to the Dean, and has a “dotted-line” reporting relationship to the finance authority of the Academic Health Sciences Center.
