

DIVERSITY PLAN AT A GLANCE

Diversity Statement

The College of Public Health and East Tennessee State University aspire to be institutions that celebrate diversity by welcoming all students, faculty, administrators and staff as respected and valued participants in their educational mission. The College of Public Health is committed to the university's goal of preparing students to become productive, enlightened citizens who actively serve their communities and the world. As such, the college promotes an environment where people honor one another as individuals, value differences and the special gifts each of us bring to the community, and respect the right of others as human beings inclusive of race, gender, ethnicity, cultural background, sexual orientation/gender identity, class, age, disability, religion and national origin.
