

VITA

DUMISA NYARAMBI

- Education: M.P.H. Community Health, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee 2012
Graduate Certificate Rural Health, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee 2010
B.S. Health Education, Morgan State University, Baltimore Maryland 2008
A.A.S. Hospitality Management, Baltimore City Community College, Baltimore, Maryland 2004
- Experience: Graduate Research Assistant, East Tennessee State University, College of Public Health, 2018-
Chief Experience Officer, Living Well Concierge, Johnson City, Tennessee, 2014-2017
Health Educator, Public Good Projects-Live Sugar freed, Johnson City Tennessee, 2015
Patient Centered-Care Coordinator, Mountain States Health Alliance 2012-2014
Graduate Administrative Assistant, East Tennessee State, College of Public Health University 2010-2012
Front Office Coordinator, Cookeville Medical Center, Cookeville, Tennessee, 2007-2009
- Research Interests: Postpartum contraception access and postpartum health, Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome prevention
- Training: Institutional Review Board Manager Training, 2018
CITI Protection of Human Research Subjects, 2018
Adopt-IT Facilitator Certification, Mountain States Health Alliance, 2013
- Community Service: Board Member, Summit Leadership, Johnson City Tennessee, 2015-2019
Presenter/ Facilitator, Service Excellence Training for Business and Non- Profit Professionals, Growing Leaders Program, Summit Leadership, Tennessee, 2017
Facilitator and Developer; Professional Development and Etiquette Training for International Students, 20