- A. Approval of the minutes: February 22, 2021 Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the February 22, 2021 minutes.
- B. Subcommittee Minutes for Review
 - a. Graduate Faculty
 - i. March 15, 2021 Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the March 15, 2021 minutes.
 - b. Curriculum
 - i. March 1, 2021 Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the March 1, 2021 minutes.
 - ii. March 15, 2021 Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the March 15, 2021 minutes.
- C. Proposal Discussion
 - a. Establish New Certificate 12-23 credits - C4, Recovery Research (Robbie Pack) This proposed certificate program was contingently passed at the last curriculum meeting; once all new courses are approved, this certificate proposal will progress with the new program.
- D. Update from GPSA Representative Shon Wheatley Shon was not at the meeting, so Dr. Brian Johnston and Dr. Karin Bartoszuk informed the committee of a few points of interest with GPSA. They are working on the annual budget request, where funding is provided for travel and membership dues. GPSA is trying to find more ways to get undergraduate students, especially juniors and seniors, more engaged and want to stay at ETSU after graduation. In the fall of 2021, they hope to begin a brown bag lunch series to answer questions about GPSA.
- E. Update from the Graduate School
 - a. Dr. Bartoszuk and Dr. Kirkby Dr. Bartoszuk just finished with a Zoom workshop that had 42 participants. Dr. Kirkby requested that students not have to do both a personal statement and admissions essay that seems redundant. If an essay is required, he asked that it have specific instructions. The department is working on the Mentor Award for the faculty/staff who helps graduate students. It is a $1.000 award.

- b. Dr. McGee University is working on increasing international recruitment by hiring a consultant and two contact agents to bring in highly qualified and hopefully financially stable international students for both graduate and undergraduate students.
 - i. Kay Lennon to present Graduate School Policies These policies have been broken down into smaller pieces, but the content is the same. Redundant language has been removed. The process includes legal review, public comment, academic council, President, and then it is official.
