D. Duolingo English Test (Dr. Bartoszuk)
Certification of English proficiency. Graduate students whose native language is not English must submit a minimum score of 79 (Internet-based), 550 (paper-based) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), taken within the past two years; a minimum score of 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS); a minimum score of 53 on the PTE Academic; successful completion of the English Language Services Program at Level 112; or have earned a baccalaureate degree from an accredited U.S. institution. (All international students who receive a tuition scholarship or graduate assistantship must sit for an oral English proficiency interview immediately upon their arrival at ETSU.)

*International applicants have the option to submit Duolingo English test scores. To qualify for admission, applicants must score a minimum of 115 and complete an oral English proficiency interview (at no cost) regardless of receiving a graduate assistantship. This change applies from Spring 2021 until the Summer of 2022 admission periods.

Dr. Bartoszuk presented the Duolingo English language for discussion. The final language will be placed in the catalog after Academic Council has approved. The Duolingo English language will be as follows:

*International applicants for Spring 2021 through Summer 2022 starting semesters, also have the option to submit Duolingo English Test scores. A minimum score of 115 is required for admission. Applicants that are admitted using the Duolingo English Test, will also be required to complete an oral English proficiency interview (at no cost) before the start of classes

E. Graduate Council on QESC Update (Dr. Hemphill)

Dr. Hemphill presented QESC. QECS means Quality and Effectiveness Sub-Council Report to University and it is relevant SACSCOC standards. Dr. Hemphill is a current member and wanted to discuss the key facts of the watermark electronic reporting format the council members.

F. Graduate School Updates
   a. 3MT update

   Dr. McGee stated the 3MT winners were selected. The winners are Sharon Bigger as 1st place, John Hayford Teye-Kau as 2nd place, and Thomas Ntim as 3rd place. The event was virtual with diverse group of judges from the surrounding community.

   b. Tuition Scholarship working group update
Dr. McGee detailed there is a group working on studying how the TS can be utilized more efficiently and allocated to more offices/departments. The committee is composed of graduate coordinators and representatives from each college. The details of the results will be presented to the Graduate Council in April 2021.

c. Graduation tuition update

Dr. McGee stated the College of Graduate and Continuing Studies has reorganized the former graduate specialists and the details will be shared soon.

Also, Dr. McGee stated a tuition committee is researching graduate tuition using similar metric as undergraduate tuition. The results will be ready by December 15 and presented to the Deans Council.
