Attend graduate student workshops for a quick understanding of research fundamentals. This year’s workshops are included in the Free Virtual Writing Camp by the Graduate School. The Library 101 Series contains a graduate Literature Review workshop. For more details, please see http://libraries.etsu.edu/use/instruction/workshops.

Consult with Dr. Wendy Doucette, the Graduate Research and Instruction Librarian, for personalized help regarding your research. Please note: there are no walk-in appointments at the Library for Fall 2020. All library research consultations are given on Zoom. Schedule an appointment here: https://libcal.etsu.edu/appointments/

Sherrod Library will help you find the resources you need to succeed this semester: http://libraries.etsu.edu/home
Visit the Graduate Student section of the website to find information about research assistance, citation management, workshops, and more. Sherrod library and study spaces are open 7 days a week but are subject to change. Please see the Library website for hours.