

INTRODUCING Percipio

Experience immersive learning. Meet Percipio.

East Tennessee State University understands the importance of professional development and continuous learning. And as we continue to evolve as an institution, so has our learning platform. We are pleased to announce the upcoming launch of the new SkillSoft platform, Percipio. Latin for “acquiring knowledge”, Percipio delivers a fresh, contemporary and personalized learning environment that allows each person to choose between watching, reading or listening to course content when and where they need it most.

Have you used Google, Netflix or Amazon? Then you know how important your experience is. Let us introduce Percipio, an immersive learning platform that creates the kind of experiences today's learner demands. Percipio enables you to curate your own content and take control of your learning journey.

Percipio offers Skillsoft’s engaging content, curated into hundreds of channels with:

- A modern, simple, and intuitive design for ease of use
- Curated learning paths to provide guidance
- Data visualization and impact reporting
- Multimodal options to take learning when and where YOU need it
- Business Skills content collection

You will be receiving additional information in the coming weeks, so get ready for a new way of learning!
