

Undergraduate Admission Policy for International Applicants

Responsible Official: Vice President for Student Life and Enrollment

Responsible Office: Admissions

Policy Purpose

This policy specifies the undergraduate admission process to East Tennessee State University for International Applicants.

Policy Statement

The Office of Admissions will consider an International Applicant's completed application and required supporting documentation for undergraduate admission to East Tennessee State University (ETSU) and will issue a written Notice of Decision. Admission to ETSU does not guarantee admission to specialized or limited enrollment programs. ETSU may charge a one-time non-refundable application fee.

I. International Admission Requirements.

The Office of Admissions will consider an International Applicant for Regular Admission based on the individual's English proficiency and whether the individual has either (1) completed secondary education; or (2) attended or completed post-secondary education.

A. International Applicant with Secondary Education Only.

The Office of Admissions will consider an International Applicant who has completed only secondary education for Regular Admission to ETSU. An International Applicant must submit Official Transcripts or Official Documentation and a certified translation of those documents if the documentation is not in English. The transcripts or documentation must meet the undergraduate admission standards applicable to the country issuing the document.

If applicable, an International Applicant is also required to submit proof of English proficiency as described in Section C hereinbelow.

B. Applicant with Post-Secondary Education.

The Office of Admissions will consider an International Applicant who has attended or completed post-secondary education. An International Applicant must submit Official Transcripts or Official Documentation from all post-secondary institutions and a certified translation of those documents if the documentation is not in English. The transcript or documentation must meet the undergraduate admission standards applicable to the country issuing the document.

If applicable, the International Applicant is also required to submit proof of English proficiency as described in Section C hereinbelow.

An International Applicant must submit Official Transcripts or Official Documentation that meet the undergraduate admission standards applicable to the country issuing the transcript or document and must submit a certified translation of those documents if the documentation is not in English.

If applicable, an International Applicant is also required to submit proof of English proficiency as described in Section C hereinbelow.

C. English Proficiency Requirement.

International Applicants whose first language is not English must provide proof of English proficiency as published on the ETSU Undergraduate website.

II. Accreditation.

The Office of Admissions will only accept official transcripts from accredited high schools, home schools, or regionally accredited institutions. If a prospective student is enrolled in or has completed high school via homeschool or private high school that is not accredited, the individual may be admitted at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Life and Enrollment or their designee.

III. Accommodations.

To the extent possible and subject to the approval of the Director of Admissions or their designee and the applicable department chair or their designee, the Office of Admissions may grant accommodations and other academic adjustments when necessary.

IV. Discrimination.

In accordance with ETSU's Policy on Discrimination and Harassment, ETSU does not discriminate against applicants for admission on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, disability, age, status as a protected veteran, genetic information, or any other legally protected class.

V. Appeals.

If a prospective student is denied Admission to ETSU, the individual may qualify to file an appeal. The written Notification of Decision will detail the process by which the prospective student may appeal the decision. The appeals process is governed by the Undergraduate Admission Appeals Policy.

VI. Residency.

An International Applicant's classification as in-state or out-of-state for residency purposes will be determined pursuant to ETSU policies, ETSU regulations, federal, and state law.

Authority: Focus Act, TCA 49-8-101 et. al.
