This AGREEMENT, entered into this 12th day of June, 2013, by and between EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY, hereinafter referred to as University, MILLIGAN COLLEGE, hereinafter referred to as College, a Tennessee Corporation, and EMMANUEL CHRISTIAN SEMINARY, hereinafter referred to as Seminary, a Tennessee Corporation;

Witnesseth:

WHEREAS, East Tennessee State University is a state-supported institution of higher education, and

WHEREAS, Milligan College is a private institution of higher education, and

WHEREAS, Emmanuel Christian Seminary is a private institution of graduate higher education, and

WHEREAS, the University, College, and Seminary are located within six (6) miles of each other, and

WHEREAS, the University, College, and Seminary have unique curricular offerings, and

WHEREAS, University, College, and Seminary students can mutually benefit from these unique curricular offerings,

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the terms, conditions, and mutual obligations set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

A. The Seminary and College agree to the following procedures and conditions:
1. To admit University students to selected classes in accordance with the terms stipulated in section C of this Agreement.

2. To permit University students who are enrolled in selected classes to utilize the Seminary and College libraries in accordance with the same rules applied to students enrolled at the Seminary and College.

3. To permit University faculty to utilize the Seminary and College libraries in accordance with procedures outlined by the Seminary and College.

4. To promptly provide grade reports on the University students to the Registrar at the University.

5. To compensate the University annually by June 1 for each semester hour registered for by a Seminary or College student at the University's rate for Maintenance Fees, Program Service Fees, Online Fees and/or required applicable Course Fees as appropriate for graduate and/or undergraduate courses. Maintenance/Tuition, Program Services Fees, Online Fees and all required applicable Course Fees are subject to change by the Tennessee Board of Regents without notice.

B. The University agrees to the following procedures and conditions:

1. To admit Seminary and College students to selected classes at the University in accordance with the terms stipulated in section C of this Agreement.

2. To permit the Seminary and College students who are enrolled in selected classes at the University to utilize the University library in accordance with the same rules applied to University students.

3. To permit Seminary and College faculty to utilize the University library in accordance with procedures outlined by the University.

4. To provide grade reports for the Seminary and College students to the Registrar at the appropriate institution with two business days after the deadline for the University.

5. To compensate the Seminary and College annually by June 1 for each semester hour registered for by a University student at the University's rate for Maintenance Fees, Program Service Fees, Online Fees and/or required applicable Course Fees as appropriate for graduate and/or undergraduate courses. Maintenance/Tuition, Program Services Fees, Online Fees and all required applicable Course Fees are subject to change by the Tennessee Board of Regents without notice.

6. RODP courses are not available to Seminary and College students; however, other online courses are available through D2L.
C. Parties to this Agreement agree to the following conditions:

1. Participation under terms of this agreement is limited to students at the Seminary who have been approved by the Seminary's Dean of Instruction, College students who have been approved by the College's Registrar, and to University students who have been approved by the University's Registrar.

2. For the University and College, participation under terms of this Agreement is limited to enrollment in undergraduate courses by students who are classified as full-time by their home institution. Part-time students may participate with the agreement of their home institution.

3. Representatives of the University, College, and Seminary shall meet to review course offerings under this Agreement.

4. Registration in courses covered by this Agreement must be approved by the student's home institution and the Registrar or Dean of Instruction, in the institution offering the course, with the following considerations:
   a. The Registrar or Dean of Instruction at the home institution will assure that the student has an adequate background for the course desired.
   b. The Registrar or Dean of Instruction at the institution offering the course will determine that enrollment positions exist in the desired course.
   c. A student will not be permitted to register for a course at the host institution if it is available at the home institution, unless the Registrar or Dean of Instruction of the home institution determines there is an irreconcilable schedule conflict.
   d. University students may take elective courses only.
   e. Every effort will be made to accommodate visiting students.
   f. The exchange arrangements will also extend to summer sessions and other special sessions insofar as financial considerations warrant.
   g. The College will provide the University a list of non-duplicative courses by semester. This list will be publicized to University students through the Registrar's Office, through department offices, and other means.

5. For purposes of course withdrawals, drops, and refunds, the student will be governed by the policies of the institution offering the course in which he/she is enrolled.
6. Students will pay the appropriate tuition/maintenance to their institution for the course(s) selected under the terms of this Agreement. Charges for courses which require an extra fee (course fees, online fees, lab fees, etc.) will be paid by the students to the institution where the course is taken.

7. The University, College, and the Seminary agree that no person shall, on the basis of race, veteran status, sex, religion, color, national origin, age, or handicap, be excluded from participation, be denied the benefit of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any course or program offered pursuant to this Agreement, and violation of this provision shall be grounds for immediate termination of the Agreement.

8. University resources requiring University ID will not be available.

9. This Agreement shall be effective June 12, 2013 and shall remain in effect for a period of five years and shall be subject to review and revision at the end of this period, unless either party requests termination of the Agreement by notifying the other party at least thirty days prior to the beginning of an academic term.

10. The Seminary and College shall maintain documentation for all charges against the Institution under this Agreement. The books, records, and documents of the Seminary and College, insofar as they related to work performed or money received under this Agreement, shall be maintained for a period of three full years from the date of the final payment, and shall be subject to audit, at any reasonable time and upon notice, by the institution or the comptroller of the Treasury, or their duly appointed representatives.
