COMMENCEMENT

EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY
Johnson City, Tennessee

Spring Convocation 2012

Guests are asked to refrain from coming forward to take pictures during the ceremony.

President Noland invites members of the graduating class and their guests who have cameras to join him immediately following the Commencement programs for informal snapshots with graduating students.

Flag Etiquette

All persons present in uniform should render the military salute. Members of the armed forces and veterans who are present but not in uniform may render the military salute. All other persons present should face the flag and stand at attention with their right hand over the heart, or if applicable, remove their headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. When the national anthem is played or sung, citizens should stand at attention and salute at the first note and hold the salute through the last note.

The salute is directed to the flag as it is presented.

Dr. Richard G. Rhoda

*Executive Director
Tennessee Higher Education Commission*

Dr. Richard G. Rhoda became executive director of the Tennessee Higher Education Commission in 1997, and he also serves as executive director of the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation.

A native of Allentown, Pa., Rhoda has dedicated his entire career to higher education in Tennessee. He was educated in the public schools of Westfield, N.J., and Suffern, N.Y., and went on to earn a B.A. in history, an M.A. in education, and a Ph.D. in higher education administration, all from Vanderbilt University.

He joined the staff of the Tennessee Board of Regents as a graduate student in 1973, and during the next 12 years he assumed a progression of staff capacities, eventually becoming the executive assistant to the chancellor from 1980 to 1985. During this time, he contributed significantly to the development of initial system-wide policies and information systems and was the chief public information officer. It was also during this time that he participated in chronicling the early history of Tennessee's community colleges and pursued his academic research interests.

In 1985, Rhoda joined the administration of Tennessee State University where he fulfilled a series of assignments, including leading external relations, overseeing the university's downtown campus, serving as chief development officer, launching the Institute of Government, and recruiting the inaugural class of Ph.D. students.

Rhoda returned to TBR in 1990 as vice chancellor for administration. While working for TBR, he served as interim president of Nashville State Technical Community College and later Austin Peay State University, and as acting chancellor of the Board of Regents in 1993. Rhoda joined the faculty of Vanderbilt University in 1995 and was the original assistant director of the Peabody Center for Education Policy and taught undergraduate and graduate courses.

In 1997, he returned to the Tennessee Board of Regents as senior vice chancellor of academic affairs and strategic planning. It was later that year that he was called upon to lead the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

Rhoda is a member of a number of state and national boards, including the TBR, the University of Tennessee Board of Trustees, and the State Higher Education Executive Officers organization. In addition, he is treasurer for the Education Commission of the States and chair of the Tennessee Foreign Language Institute.

He is married to Nancy Chickering Rhoda, a retired career photojournalist with The Tennessean. They have a daughter and a son.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The three academic degrees generally recognized are the bachelor's, the master's and the doctor's. The name of each degree seems to have been determined by medieval university custom. The bachelor's degree, the baccalaureate, takes its name directly from the medieval practice of "bachelors" wearing a garland of bayberries. The master's degree was equivalent to a license to teach, and sometimes was followed by the express words Licentia Docendi. The doctor's degree was originally a title of respect and a recognition of great learning. Today the doctor's degree indicates advanced study and independent research in a specialized field of learning, whereas honorary degrees are granted for meritorious service and for distinction in public or private endeavor. In the medieval university, students and teachers wore gowns indicating their status and scholastic achievement.

In 1895, an intercollegiate commission drafted a uniform code for the use of academic caps, gowns and hoods in the United States. This code is followed by approximately 95 percent of all colleges and universities. In 1932 and 1935 the American Council on Education reviewed and refined the American academic costume.

Those holding a bachelor's degree traditionally wear a gown of worsted material, fastened at the top, and distinguished by long pointed sleeves hanging nearly to the knees. The master's gown, worn open, is made either of worsted or silk, and has long closed sleeves with an arc appearing near the bottom and a slit for the arm near the middle of the sleeves. The doctor's gown, also worn open, is made of silk, faced with a broad strip of velvet, and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve.

A hood may be worn with the gown and is made of the same material. The master's hood is three and one-half feet long, faced with a three-inch strip of velvet; the doctor's hood is four feet long, faced with a five-inch strip of velvet. The color of the tassel or the velvet strip on the hood indicates the field of study in which the degree was earned or granted, as for example: Agriculture – Maize; Arts, Letters, Humanities – White; Commerce, Accountancy, Business – Drab; Dentistry – Lilac; Economics – Copper; Education – Light Blue; Engineering – Orange; Fine Arts including Architecture – Brown; Forestry – Russet; Journalism – Crimson; Law – Purple; Library Science – Lemon; Medicine – Green; Music – Pink; Nursing – Apricot; Oratory (Speech) – Silver Gray; Pharmacy – Olive Green; Philosophy – Dark Blue; Physical Education – Sage Green; Physical Therapy – Teal; Public Administration including Foreign Service – Peacock Blue; Public Health – Salmon Pink; Science – Golden Yellow; Social Work – Citron; Theology – Scarlet; Veterinary Science – Gray.

The appropriate cap for all degrees is the familiar black "mortarboard." A black tassel, or one of a color signifying the field of specialization, hanging to the left of the face, is appropriate for all degrees. Those holding a doctor's degree may wear a soft velvet cap of the color indicating their field of study, or with the "mortarboard" may wear a tassel in whole or in part of gold thread.

The Presidential Medallion

The presidential medallion is the traditional symbol of office worn at official functions. The design features a torch symbolizing learning; a wreath, symbol of victory, while the star ruby symbolizes excellence.

The Mace

The East Tennessee State University mace is an organic design in forged silver with an ebony handle. The form gives a circular impression, referring to the medieval concept of a heavy armor-breaking club yet losing its warlike appearance by becoming less solid and a more decorative symbol of the university as it encompasses global thinking. A central staff radiates the thrust of the rhythmic branches of the tree of knowledge; the heavier branches representing the well-established disciplines and the more delicate ones the beginnings and growth of the new.

The Flag

The flag of East Tennessee State University is of simple conception, yet representative of the rich heritage of the area and the aspirations of the university.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Alma Mater

In the shadow of the mountains,
Under skies of blue,
Stands our dear old Alma Mater,
Glorious to view,
Sound the chorus, speed it onward;
Thee we'll never fail!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater—
Hail to thee, all hail!

In thy halls we formed our friendships,
Dear old college home;
And to thee we pledge our hearts,
Wherever we may roam,
Sound the chorus, speed it onward;
Thee we'll never fail!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater—
Hail to thee, all hail!
