

March 23
ETSU D.P.
Culp Center
Ballroom
6 p.m.

The Johnson City Community Roundtable will hold its monthly meeting on campus as part of Civility activities. The Roundtable members, including local police, FBI, NAACP, and ETSU representatives welcome students to attend this meeting as part of a broad dialogue.

COMMUNITY ROUNDTABLE MEMBERS

MARK SIROIS

Chief of Police
 Johnson City Police Department
 Johnson City, Tennessee
 25 years in law enforcement

AMANDA WORLEY

Patrol Sergeant
 ETSU Campus Police
 13 years in law enforcement
 RAD instructor, SAFE instructor

RALPH E. DAVIS

Umoja/Unity Committee,
 president
 Johnson City/Washington Co.
 Area NAACP, president

JEFF BLANTON

FBI, Supervisory Senior Resident Agent
 27 years in law enforcement
 Supervises FBI's Johnson City office Conducted investigations ranging from violent crimes, complex white collar crimes, to public corruption

BILL COLEMAN

Captain, U.S. Navy (Retired)
 27-year Naval career
 Served 11 years as ETSU
 Director of Human Resources
 Numerous professional and civic activities

MELANIE ALDRIDGE

FBI, Intelligence Analyst, Johnson City
 Resident Agency, Knoxville Division
 25 years with FBI
 Analysis in large corruption, fraud and drug cases has led to many convictions.

OTHER MEMBERS: ● BECKY HAAS ● MICHELLE BYRD ● KEISHA SHOUN
 ● AL WALKER ● MAJOR KARL TURNER ● LT. SCOTT CARRIER

"The Community Roundtable is a format for the community at large and our diverse communities in the city to come together and talk ..." Johnson City Police Chief Mark Sirois said. "The slogan of the roundtable is 'Together We Are Stronger.' So the police are not outside of the community looking in; the police are part of the community."

Together we are stronger