

A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 136 PARAGRAPH H AS EXPRESSED IN THE EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

Whereas, the current language of Section 136 Paragraph H discourages students from events that might potentially enrich the campus with more international awareness, and;

Whereas, students are offered the opportunity to receive funding for domestic travel, and;

Whereas, industries are becoming increasingly globalized, which means international experience and greater cultural awareness will greatly benefit students.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE 2010-2011 STUDENT GOVERNMENT SENATE OF EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY THAT:

Section 1. The SGA Constitution Paragraph H of Section 136 be amended to offer equal opportunity for funding international “conferences, seminars, etc. when it can be established that participation at the same can benefit all or a significant portion of the student body,” as stated in Paragraph C, Section 135 regarding domestic travel.

Section 2. The Constitution be amended so that international events are no longer cause for ineligibility of funding.

Section 3. Paragraph H be amended so that it only excludes international flights from funding.
