Expectations of Student and Part-time Staff

The Department of Campus Recreation recognizes that our student staff are students first. We will not jeopardize your status as a student with unreasonable or unjustifiable job demands. However, by accepting employment with the department, employees are accepting a commitment for which they are responsible. As a staff member, your actions are representative of the Basler Center for Physical Activity, the Department of Campus Recreation, and East Tennessee State University. A positive attitude and professionalism towards all patrons and co-workers contributes greatly to the overall quality and success of the CPA and Campus Recreation. All student and part-time employees are expected to show up on-time, properly dressed and ready to work for each shift. Each staff member is expected to attend all required training sessions and/or meetings in the area(s) that they work, and must know and perform all responsibilities related to their job. Any job concerns or questions about policies and procedures shall be discussed with direct supervisors.

Why work in Campus Recreation?

The benefits of working for the Campus Recreation Department include (but are not limited to):

1. Fun people, a great atmosphere, and a healthy environment
2. Development of work experience while in school
3. Flexible hours
4. Opportunities for working for the public and social interaction
5. Leadership experiences where responsibilities and communication skills are learned
6. Employment for students who desire to work and/or need an income
7. A great location – right on campus

Code of Conduct

The vast majority of the work in the Department of Campus Recreation is done by students for students. The purpose of the CPA and the department's programs is to serve the university community, the most of which are students. Students pay fees that built the CPA and that operate the Department of Campus Recreation.

Holding a part-time job while going to college is just as much a part of the learning experience as attending classes. As a Campus Recreation staff member you are expected to conduct yourself in a professional manner.

Professionalism includes competence, dependability, punctuality, and the ability to relate to and work with a wide range of people. A student and part-time staff member can develop all of these skills while working in the Campus Recreation department.

Student and part-time staff should be aware that they are responsible for the enjoyment, health, and safety of all patrons in the CPA and all participants in Campus Recreation programs. Recreation facilities and programs cannot operate without supervision. The Basler Challenge Course, Member Services, Casual Care and the Pool are areas that have constant staff supervision while open. All areas can operate more effectively and efficiently when staffed by competent student employees.

Dependability and punctuality are two recurring issues, and their solutions rest with the employees themselves. The professional staff can teach work skills; however, the Student Staff is expected to perform them. The professional staff and graduate assistants of the Department of Campus Recreation are committed to helping each individual student and part-time employee meet his/her fullest potential. There are standards that must be met and expectations that must be fulfilled, and if they cannot be some individuals may be better off working elsewhere.

1. Employees must work their assigned shifts. Persons failing to show up for a shift may be terminated. This includes mandatory staff meetings and training sessions. If a shift is missed, IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SCHEDULED STUDENT STAFF TO FIND A SUBSTITUTE (Group Fitness, Intramurals and Outdoor Adventure staff check with direct supervisors for substitution policies in those areas). Also, if unexpected events arise, which they will, the department expects to be notified before the assigned shift.
2. Excessive tardiness is unacceptable and may result in termination. Students who are running late are advised to call ahead. It is NOT easier to ask forgiveness than permission.
3. Student Staff represent the department even when they are participating in its programs. Student Staff who are ejected from intramural games for arguing will receive a written reprimand. Anyone ejected for fighting will be terminated immediately. The student work force is also expected to abide by all rules including, but not limited to, having proper identification for admittance into the CPA and racking weights while working out.
4. Student Staff shall not be in the building unauthorized after hours. Being granted card access is not synonymous with being granted building privileges that are any different than the student population in general.
5. The department's student and part-time employees are expected to conduct themselves in a professional, customer-focused manner at all times. This includes times of crisis and when dealing with "problem" patrons. If employees conduct themselves in such a manner, they will have the unwavering support of the professional staff. Instances when employees lower themselves to the level of the "problem patrons" will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis and may result in termination.

Should one of the emergency exit only doors be opened, an auditory signal will call your attention to the appropriate door. When a door has been opened, go there immediately, and shut off the alarm. Attempt to locate the person who opened the door. If an individual opened the door illegally to let another person in, both parties must leave the facility. Politely, but firmly escort them outside. If they refuse to leave, have them escorted out by Public Safety.

Should an injury situation occur, whether you see the injury yourself or are contacted via radios, proceed immediately to the injury site. Never leave the injured person unattended. Clear the area of all non-staff persons and assess the condition. Ask the person what happened, what was injured, is the pain severe, etc. Ask if they would like ice for their injury and if so, radio for another CPA staff member to bring you a bag of ice. While waiting for the ice to arrive, do the following:

- A. You must first determine if more advanced medical help is needed. If so, immediately dial 911 from a campus phone or hit the call button on one of the CPA Emergency phone located in the building, or radio the equipment room to do so. Any time an injury is to the head or neck, always dial 911, even if the individual refuses medical assistance.
- B. Make the person feel as comfortable as possible. Begin asking for the information needed to complete the Accident Report Form. Avoid having bystanders standing in the area giving a diagnosis on the severity of the injury.
- C. For any "non-life threatening injury," (i.e. ankle sprains, dislocations) call 911 for assistance. Contact a student staff member in the closet area (WR, MS, ED) and request that they call 911. Make sure they tell the dispatcher where you are. Make sure you complete the Accident Report Form. If the individual refuses medical assistance, please indicate that on your report. For minor cuts, utilize a blood spill kit.

Even if a Student Staff is "off the clock" they shall adhere to all etiquette policies (cell phone and homework policies excluded) while they are present at a Campus Recreation facility.

Employees found in violation of these policies are subject to corrective action procedures including being sent home early, loss of hours, and/or termination.

Attitude & Customer Service

Student and part-time staff are the department's most effective public relations resource. Breaks

Short restroom break can be taken during shifts, if you are working at the Member Service Desk or Equipment Room by yourself, please notify the Building Supervisor, who can sit in for you. If you are working an extraordinarily long

Studying

Customer Service is the primary responsibility of all Campus Recreation employees. Do to the nature of the facility and the work required from each staff member, studying is not allowed while on duty. Please note that if you have a "work study" position, that means you have a campus job that helps pay for your education, it does not mean that you study while at work at your job.

Reading

Customer Service is the primary responsibility of all Campus Recreation employees. Staff in certain desk positions (Member Services, Equipment Desk, and Casual Care - when no children are present) may read a book or magazine, as long as it does not interfere with their ability to provide great customer service and fulfill their job responsibilities.

Cell Phones & electronics

Use of personal cell phones or any electronic item while working is not permitted. These items are not to be visible or be left out at work stations, nor should they be out charging. They must be put away and out of site for the duration of your shift.

Radio Use

Radios are an integral part of responding to customer service issues, emergencies and staffing issues. The department's goal is to enhance communication between work stations in a variety of circumstances. Under normal operating conditions there should be a radio at Member Services, Equipment Desk, Weight Room, 2nd floor front office, and the pool. Employees should use the radios as much as possible to avoid unnecessarily leaving their work station vacant. These radios are to be used in case of emergencies to insure that EAPs are being followed. They will also help work stations reach a supervisor much easier. The radios are for work purposes only; please do not use them inappropriately. Remember that other staff, and in some cases patrons, may be able to hear what you say over the radio, so do not use foul language or speak derogatorily.

At the start of your shift, please make sure the radio in your area is turned on and working properly. When the CPA closes, please turn OFF the radio and place it in the charger. DO NOT place the radio in the charge while it is ON. Occasionally, radio batteries will go dead. In the event that a work stations radio needs to be recharged, inform a Building Supervisor as soon as possible to and they will attempt to locate an extra radio can be used as a temporary replacement.

If someone is not in the office, do not give the wrong impression to the caller with statements such as, "He isn't back from lunch yet", or "she's still on break". Simply state that "_____ is not in the office at this time", or is in a meeting,

Use of CPA Computers and Personal Laptops

Campus Recreation computers are for work purposes first and foremost. If there is a computer in your work area, it must be utilized for work related activities. CPA computers are not to be used to watch TV, movies, internet shows or the like, nor are they to be used for viewing, posting, chatting, etc. on any social media websites. With these computers, you can check your email, as long as it does not interfere with your work responsibilities.

Computers in the GA suite are specifically for the Graduate Assistants, student and part-time staff are not permitted to use these computers unless given permission by a professional staff member. Computers in professional staff offices and in the Front Office, are only to be used with permission by the particular professional staff member.

Personal laptops, Ipads, and Kindles or any other electric item are not permitted to be used while you are working.

Dealing with Difficult People

Although you should try to please everyone, there will be times when this is not possible. At some point you may not be able to solve an individual's complaint satisfactorily. Follow these guidelines to insure good service.

1. A Student Staff should never argue with an individual; strive to maintain a pleasant attitude throughout the situation. DO NOT engage in verbal sparring.
2. Listen, without interruption, to the whole complaint.
3. Empathize with the individual's concerns without criticizing the university or department policies.
4. Try to suggest a solution, or refer them to the Building Supervisor on duty or full time staff, who might help solve their problem.
5. Have the individual write down the complaint and place it in the Director's mailbox or fill out a comment card located at the Equipment Desk.
6. If none of the suggestions appease the individual, and/or if they become belligerent, contact the Building Supervisor or a full time staff person to handle the situation. DO NOT allow yourself to be verbally abused.
7. If a situation becomes uncontrollable or you feel threatened in anyway, call Public Safety at 911 from a campus phone or dial 423-439-4480 from a cell phone.

Work Schedules

Work schedules are made up for the entire semester for all areas except Intramurals. Academic schedules are not going to change, so work schedules will not either. When you sign up for your permanent work hours, realize that they are PERMANENT. Occasional adjustments can be made for unforeseen circumstances. However, persistent requests for adjustments may suggest a worker's lack of commitment to their job.

The in-service training schedule for the entire year is held in August, in addition there may be supplemental trainings and meetings throughout the year. Attendance at all training sessions and meetings is mandatory. If academic field trips, military reserve schedules, or other genuine commitments interfere with training or your regularly scheduling shifts, you must inform your direct supervisor when the semester begins. Because of the advance notice provided for training, no one will be excused for any reason. Employees that miss any of the in-service training sessions will not receive priority in the scheduling of shifts and will not be confirmed to work until the training is made up.

Reporting to Work

Leaving Work

1. Work up until the end of your shift, do not leave early, unless approved by your direct supervisor.
2. Relay all messages and assignments to the next person on duty.
 - Leave a message if they have not arrived by the time you must leave;
3. If you do not complete an assignment, please make sure you fully explain what to do to the next Student Staff.
4. Record your work hours on your timecard before you leave.
5. If no one is there to relieve you, be sure to tell the Building Supervisor on duty of the situation.

Substitutions*

1. It is your responsibility to find a replacement well in advance, preferably at least 48 hours, if you are going to be absent.
2. If your area uses When2Work(W2W), you will need to use the trade/swap board to make sure your shift is covered.
3. The shift must be picked up on W2W prior to your absence.
4. Do not call the front office and say "I've tried calling everyone and cannot find anyone to work, can you try to find someone for me?" If you have already called EVERYONE, then the office will not need to call them again. It is extremely important that you find a substitute well in advance, if you cannot find a substitute for your shift, it is still your responsibility to show up for that shift. If you cannot find a substitute and have exhausted all resources and called EVERYONE, talk with your direct supervisor, do not call the front office.
5. If you substitute for someone, you must pick up his or her shift on W2W before the shift begins.
6. Failing to secure a substitute can result in termination. PLAN AHEAD.
7. Do not spilt your shift. If you work 4-6pm, you need to find a sub that can work that entire shift.

*Group Fitness, Intramurals and Outdoor Adventure staff: see direct supervisor for substitution policies in those work areas.

Summer Employment

A limited number of students are hired for the summer months. The department operates a skeleton schedule of services and programs, as well as hosts a number of camp and conference groups.

Anyone interested in summer employment should apply immediately following spring break. The limited number of slots will be filled before April, so potential summer employees should not delay in applying. Preference will be given to current staff.

Corrective Action, Evaluations and Grievances

Corrective Action Process (Write-Ups)

The corrective action process is designed to be constructive, corrective and to promote staff member success. It gives staff members the information necessary to understand what aspect of work performance, attendance or behavior is unacceptable, identifies the improvements that are expected, and provides the opportunity for staff members to demonstrate the expected improvements. The goal is to improve performance, attendance, or behavior of staff members and to assist staff members in taking ownership of their performance, attendance, or behavior.

Particular steps or series of steps in the action policy will be decided by the CPA professional staff (usually in the form of write-ups and meetings between the staff member and their supervisor). Corrective action will occur when a staff member fails to adhere to the staff policies and procedures set forth by the CPA in the student handbook. The CPA professional staff may impose any level of corrective action, including dismissal, if deemed necessary. All corrective action is ultimately in the hands of the Director of Campus Recreation.

Evaluations

The performance of each Student Staff will be informally evaluated throughout the term by the professional and graduate staff, as well as the Building Supervisors. An evaluation form will be completed for each student and part-time staff member towards the end of each semester.

Grievances

The Campus Recreation Department would like to resolve student/part-time staff complaints as promptly and fairly as possible. The staff member is encouraged to discuss any complaints or concerns with the professional and/or graduate staff. If the student employee is unable to resolve the problem with the Director of Campus Recreation, appeals may be taken to the Vice-President for Student Affairs. All grievances will follow the established chain of command.

Conclusion

Periodically throughout the semester, you will receive emails and notices informing you of any changes in policies and procedures. All pertinent information will be posted at the different work areas and/or in the timecard office. Please read and make note of this information in order to follow proper policies and procedures.

The rules and responsibilities contained in this handbook are to be STRICTLY FOLLOWED. The Director and/or staff will determine the status of a person who does not follow these guidelines (i.e., write-ups, warnings, suspensions, termination, etc.). The department reserves the right to warn or release a Student Staff who does not represent the Department of Campus Recreation accordingly.

If there are any problems, suggestions, or concerns, please leave a note in the Director's box or make an appointment to see the Director as soon as possible.

You are a very important part of the success and continuous improvement of the CPA and the Department of Campus Recreation we want to help you in any way possible. Please take advantage of our open door policy and feel free to talk to full time staff at any time.
