2025 Unsung Hero Award

This award recognizes undergraduate students for their work “behind the scenes” to provide better programs and encourage active student organization. Unsung Heroes do not hold major leadership positions in student groups, such as president, nor are they yet recognized by Omicron Delta Kappa Honor Society.

Noah White, Lincoln Burroughs, Riley Ditty, Ruthie Toombs, Hunter Inancsi, Kamryn Martin, Kaitlyn Goodman, Haden Mckinnis, Lindsay Burns

2025 Shae Keane Peacebuilder Award – Emma Hurley

An active leader and dedicated advocate for community service, this year's recipient has demonstrated a strong commitment to social justice and improving the lives of others. As the founder of the Appalachian Care Initiative, they have worked to provide essential hygiene products to children facing poverty across the Appalachian region, helping to restore confidence and dignity among underserved youth. They further expanded their impact through the "Stuff the Bus" initiative, collecting school supplies for children in Southwest Virginia.

In addition to these efforts, they have remained committed to ongoing service by restocking a personal care closet at their former high school, volunteering with Habitat for Humanity, and actively participating in Alpha Delta Pi's philanthropic initiatives. Their work reflects a deep dedication to addressing community needs through compassion, leadership, and meaningful action, empowering others and creating lasting change throughout the region.

Most Improved Student Organizations of 2025 – Alpha Omicron Pi

This award recognizes significant improvement in the overall functioning, visibility, and level of activity of student organizations.

The One to Watch! 2025 – Appalachian Self-Reliance Coalition

This award recognizes a newly formed student organization that has demonstrated extraordinary potential in its first year on campus. Student groups applying for this recognition must have been granted "active" status by the SAO during the 2025 calendar (Jan-Dec) year.

2025 Jan Phillips Mentor Award – Rachel Swatzell

Mentors are an important part of personal and professional development of student leaders. They are guides through times when people need someone who is able to point them in the right direction. Good mentors are enthusiastic people, enjoying the role they play in helping others achieve their goals. This award recognizes an exceptional faculty, staff, alumni or community member who has served in the role of mentor during the 2025 Calendar Year.

Halie Ann Rex Student Leadership Award – Reese Gatewood

The Halia Ann rex Student Leadership Award was established in 2025 through the deeply generous donations of many friends and family of HalieAnn. This Student Leadership Award was established in her honor and memory. It is awarded to a student working with Campus Recreation who shares and displays the qualities of HalieAnn that made her such a magnetic person and amazing leader; and to someone who carries forth her legacy through their actions as a part of the Campus Recreation team.

Student Government Association Awards

The Tait Obadiah White Award – Savannah Henry

This award is named for and in honor of Tait Obadiah White, who attended ETSU from 2011 to 2012 . Tait was an outstanding student leader and a member of the Student Government Association who passed away unexpectedly of a rare heart condition in October 2012. Each year since 2013, the Student Government Association has selected from its members an individual who emulates Tait’s commitment to servant leadership, someone whose spirit brings happiness to others, someone who gives of themselves, and someone who always helps others through small and simple actions. The award is presented annually and is selected by a vote of all SGA members.

Cabinet Member of the Year Award – Kendall Robertson

The award is presented annually and is selected by the SGA President.

Associate Justice of the Year Award – Ali Aglan

The award is presented annually and is selected by the SGA President.

Senator of the Year Award – Katie McLain

The award is presented annually and is selected by the SGA President.

Trent White SGA Leadership Award - Aashi Vora

The Trent White SGA Leadership Award is a scholarship given annually to a senior who exemplifies the leadership, service, and character that Trent White embodied during his extraordinary journey at ETSU.

Dorman Stout Student Leadership Scholarship

Each year the Division of Student Life & Enrollment offers a $1,000 Scholarship in honor of Dr. Dorman G. Stout, Jr. Dr. Stout was an icon of student life at ETSU and an alumnus, having graduated as part of the class of 1952. Stout was the son of the longtime sociology professor for whom the Stout in Rogers-Stout hall is named. He served as Director of Financial Aid, Assistant to the Dean, Dean of Students and then as Vice President of Student Affairs until his retirement in 1996.

Citi Leadership Scholarship

The purpose of the Citi Leadership Scholarship is to provide incentive and support for students to participate in leadership development experiences beyond the classroom. Scholarship funds are provided by Citi, a global organization with opportunities just down the road in Gray Tennessee, to help students pay to participate in local, national, or regional leadership education opportunities. This scholarship is funded in recognition of the ideals of leadership espoused by Citi, and to facilitate the development of future leaders of our society.

Knoxville TVA Employees Credit Union Outstanding Treasurer Scholarship - Aastha Chaudhari

Knoxville TVA Employees Credit Union is committed to supporting ETSU students and promote financial literacy initiatives. Empowering and publicly recognizing outstanding Treasurers promotes the importance of their position within the governing body of student organizations, and beyond. $1,000 is awarded to a returning student leader who has served or is serving in a financial management role with a registered student organization at ETSU.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

The National Leadership Honor Society

Omicron Delta Kappa was the first college honor society of a national scope to give recognition and honor for meritorious leadership and service in extracurricular activities and to encourage development of general campus citizenship. ETSU Buccaneers selected for ODK join the ranks of over 300,000 women and men whose peers recognize them as scholars and leaders. They are truly students who leave a significant impact on their university. A total of 7 outstanding students will be inducted in 2023.

Ipinoluwa Akintola is a Media and Communications major with minors in Digital Marketing and Criminal Justice. She has served as National Student Representative for the American Forensic Association and competed nationally with ETSU's Speech and Debate Team, earning honors including AFA National Impromptu Speaking Quarterfinalist and District 6 Best Impromptu Speaker. Ipinoluwa has co-authored a peer-reviewed publication on crisis communication, contributed to the National Security Commission on Emerging Biotechnology's "Biotech Across America" Roadshow, and currently supports strategic communications through the ETSU Media Lab.

Cole Boyd served this year as President of Sigma Chi and Secretary of Allocations for the Student Government Association, and previously served as an SGA Senator. He is also an Expedition Leader and has been active in campus engagement through intramural sports and organizing outdoor activities. Cole has contributed to community service efforts including Rise Up for Kids, Hurricane Helene cleanup, and volunteer work with Southside Elementary School, and has been selected for study abroad in Tbilisi, Georgia and Russian language study with Indiana University.

Gracee DeJarnette has been President of the ETSU Mock Trial Team and founder of ETSU International Justice Mission, which hosted five events and raised over $3,000 for anti-trafficking efforts. She has served as a Student Government Association senator, contributing to BUC Fund accessibility, food recovery, and student leadership initiatives, and was selected to deliver an ETSU TEDx talk on growth mindset. A Global Citizen Scholar, Gracee has studied abroad in Ghana, France, and England, including serving as a student lead for the Global Handshakes program, and is also an Honors College and Study Abroad Ambassador

Dillon Harris is an Exercise Science major on the pre-physical therapy track with a minor in General Business and a recipient of the Public Service Corps Scholarship. He has served as a Programming Intern with Virtual Enterprise International, a POLO Leader and Intern supporting new student orientation, a Buccaneer Involvement Guide and a graduate of the Dr. Brenda White Wright Emerging Leaders Academy. Dillon is also active as an Expedition Leader and Student Foundation Ambassador, has competed with the Ultimate Frisbee Club Team, coached Women's Club Lacrosse, volunteered with the Boys and Girls Club, and serves as Mr. 423 with ETSU Athletics Marketing

Jared Huff serves as Executive Vice President of the ETSU Mock Trial Team, leading case preparation and coordinating evidence analysis for competition. He has held multiple roles in Student Government Association, including Secretary of the Interior, Associate Justice, and Senator, where he oversaw elections and interpreted governing documents, and he is a founder of the Legal Storytelling Society. Jared is also involved as a Student Foundation Ambassador, Study Abroad Ambassador, and JED Foundation Advisory Committee member, and has contributed to campus engagement through the TEDxETSU Speakers Committee and leadership roles in Beta Upsilon Chi Fraternity.

Shelby Koerten is a Communication Studies major and serves as Student Government Association President, representing students on the ETSU Alumni Board and University Council. She has held multiple leadership roles including SGA Academic Affairs Committee Chair, Academic Council member, and College of Arts and Sciences Senator, and is a Roan Scholar who has participated in service initiatives in Wisconsin and New Orleans. Shelby is also a co-founder of the Johnson City Junior Council, a member of Alpha Delta Pi's International Collegiate Advisory Committee, and a recipient of honors including the Alpha Delta Pi International Emerging Leader Award and ETSU New Sorority Member of the Year.

Taylor Layman serves as Student Government Association Student Body Vice President and Treasurer of ETSU's Global Brigades chapter, through which he has participated in service trips to Guatemala and Panama. She has conducted research at Oak Ridge National Laboratory on neuroendocrine tumors, completed projects on Alzheimer's-related gene modulation, and is currently developing an open-source bioreactor design. Taylor is also a member of the ETSU Rock Climbing Club Team, a former publicist for the Engineering Club, and has participated in the ETSU Marching Bucs.

“The Summit: A Celebration of Distinguished Student Leaders and Programs” celebrates the superior accomplishments of students outside the classroom. It recognizes student organization presidents and advisors, community service efforts, campus programs, and outstanding student leaders at East Tennessee State University.

Chosen by a committee of students, faculty, and staff, the name of the event — “The Summit” — refers to the attainment of the highest possible level of achievement. It visually invokes an image of the topmost point of a mountain, reaching the pinnacle of success by overcoming many obstacles and challenges along the way.

Congratulations to all Summit Award Recipients!
