ETSU STATEMENT OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS Post-Hearing & Appeal Information — Please Review Carefully

The respondent has the right to appeal this decision and/or sanction to the next higher judicial authority.

The respondent may be asked of their desire to appeal at the end of a hearing, but will have three (3) business days to reach a final decision.

The time limit for filing an appeal expires 3 business days following the receipt of the hearing outcome letter.

If the respondent desires to appeal, a written statement of reasons for appealing must be forwarded to office which adjudicated the case, either the Office of Housing and Residence Life (1st floor Burgin E. Dossett Hall) or the Student Life and Enrollment Office (302 Burgin E. Dossett Hall). Reasons for appealing must be stated in writing and based upon:

1. alleged irregularities that violate procedural due process; or
2. upon introduction of new evidence that might cause another hearing officer of board to alter the decision or sanction; or
3. if the accused feels that the sanction is unduly harsh

The case will be reviewed only in that portion of the original hearing that deals with the appeal.

The appeal will be forwarded to the appropriate appeal board/officer; who will set a date for reviewing the case.

The appeal board or officer, upon reviewing the case, will have several options. The original decision may be affirmed or reversed. In cases where the original action is inappropriate as a result of issues involved in the appeal, the appeal board or officer may revert the case back to the original board or hearing officer, modify the original action, or hold a completely new hearing.
