

Interfraternity Council

East Tennessee State University

IFC Recruitment Guidelines and Policies Terms of Agreement

The Interfraternity Council and East Tennessee State University supports fraternity life and thanks all of the chapters for their continued philanthropy, service, and leadership on campus. Our chapters help represent the university in a positive way by making the lives of students more fulfilling and meaningful. We wish to continue this tradition of excellence on campus by making our 2018 spring recruitment a success. These rules are intended to protect our members, chapters, potential new members, and the university in the recruitment process. The IFC provides chapters the opportunity to be successful through education, organization, and the facilitation of events, which can be used to the advantage of the fraternity and sorority community. It is the responsibility of our chapters to take advantage of these opportunities in order to recruit students who exemplify the values of our community.

The purpose of these terms of agreement is to ensure the accountability of all rules and sanctions presented below. Please read all recruitment material before the specified officers sign their consent.

The chapter presidents and the chapter recruitment chairs from this chapter must sign this document for it to be a valid. These two officers are acting as delegates for their chapter and the signing of this document signifies their chapter’s willingness to comply with all of the recruitment guidelines and policies. By consenting to this document, a chapter is bound to comply with all sanctions (service, monetary, and/or other) received via the IFC Judicial Board and/or the IFC Rush Committee.

The following approved IFC Recruitment Guidelines must be signed in order for a chapter to participate in the IFC recruitment process during fall 2017. Please sign and return this page of the Recruitment Guidelines to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life in SORC A on the first floor of the D.P. Culp University Center by Sunday, February 9th, 2018 by 12:00 noon.

I, on behalf of my chapter, hereby agree to all of the following recruitment guidelines and policies for the spring 2018 semester.
