EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY
SUMMER SESSION I
June 7-July 9

Teaching Global Issues in Secondary Schools

PSCI 4956/5956 012

 Earn 3 graduate or undergraduate hours this summer **

This course introduces educators to sources and methods for studying and teaching international issues, including in-class and online simulations, and using Model United Nations as a tool to improve student research, critical thinking, writing, and verbal communication skills. Make class material seem relevant to your students by integrating international issues into your class!

This course is an online course but will require meeting on campus June 28-July 1, 1-2:30pm
