To register contact:

Patti Jacobs, RN
(423) 431-5352

Continuing Education credit is awarded upon completion of each course.

Meals are not provided.

For more information regarding scheduling courses at your facility

Contact:

Patti Jacobs, RN
OB Outreach Educator
(423) 431-5352

Intermediate and Advanced Fetal Monitoring courses are available through the Association of Women’s Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses (AWHONN). More information regarding schedule and registration may be obtained at www.awhonn.org.
LEVEL I / II OB COURSE

Four day course which includes Basic Fetal Monitoring

These classes cover a wide spectrum of OB topics such as fetal and placental development, prenatal assessment, L&D, and pregnancy complications.

Schedule of classes:
- Level I / II OB Session One
  - March 18, 20, 25, 27
- Level I / II OB Session Two
  - September 30, October 2, 7, 9

Must attend all classes in Session One or Session Two to receive continuing education credit.

BASIC FETAL MONITORING

This class provides a foundation for fetal monitoring strip interpretation.

Includes:
- Physiologic principles
- NICHD terminology for strip interpretation
- Strip reviews.

Schedule of Classes:
- February 19, 2008
- May 13, 2008
- August 27, 2008
- December 3, 2008
- Level I / II OB & Basic Fetal Monitoring courses or other topics may be scheduled to be held at your facility.

HIGH RISK OBSTETRICS

This class provides an up-to-date review of some of the more common high risk complications during pregnancy.

*Features a variety of speakers.

Tentative Dates:
- June 4, 2008
- June 5, 2008