JAM (Junior Appalachian Musicians) is a multi-state music program that introduces students to the music of their communities and region through small group string band classes and instruction on instruments common to the Appalachian Mountains.

University School's group music lessons are provided by students of ETSU's Bluegrass, Old Time, and Country Music Studies Program and/or artists from the community. Group lessons are weekly, along with special artist visits and other activities.

"Pickin' In the School-Yard" is an annual celebration of traditional music at University School, featuring JAM, Elementary, Middle, and High school students, as well as bands from ETSU's Bluegrass, Old-Time, and Country Music Studies.
