

Français III—interro de vocabulaire 8.1.1

- |                          |                       |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. a campaign poster     | 12. a dictatorship    |
| 2. a ballot              | 13. a speech          |
| 3. a polling place       | 14. the right to vote |
| 4. a cabinet             | 15. to vote           |
| 5. an electoral campaign | 16. the election      |
| 6. a candidate           | 17. to elect          |
| 7. the head of state     | 18. the government    |
| 8. a televised debate    | 19. an immigrant      |
| 9. to resign             | 20. the law           |
| 10. a democracy          | 21. to protest        |
| 11. a representative     | 22. the monarchy      |

Français III—interro de vocabulaire 8.1.2

- |                                       |                          |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. the opposition                     | 7. the senator           |
| 2. the parliament                     | 8. to run as a candidate |
| 3. the political party                | 9. to hold a seat        |
| 4. to participate in                  | 10. a survey/ a poll     |
| 5. the prime minister                 | 11. the ballot box       |
| 6. the political regime               | 12. to vote              |
| 13. As far as I'm concerned...        |                          |
| 14. I don't share your point of view. |                          |
| 15. As for me...                      |                          |
| 16. Allegedly...                      |                          |
| 17. It's probable that...             |                          |
| 18. There is little change that...    |                          |
| 19. I heard that...                   |                          |
| 20. If what they say is true, ...     |                          |
| 21. It would not surprise me that...  |                          |